Alleged Racial Attack At Moda

Byron Brown, The plaintiff Brown is suing for $750,000

Lawsuit claims security guard yelled racist demand to ticket reseller

Attorneys have filed a lawsuit against the company that manages the Moda Center and a security staffing company after alleging racial discrimination against a Portland native Byron Brown. Brown hired Kalfoury & McDougall, a law firm that specializes in cases dealing with racial discrimination.

Lawyers representing Byron Brown, who has been independently selling tickets outside the Moda Center since he was 14 years old, state that back in February, while he was outside before The Eagles Concert, a security guard instructed him to move when the incident happened. Attorneys representing Brown say he was surprised by the request and questioned it, which led to an argument. Brown said he tried to tell the security guard that he was allowed to be there and suggested the guard call his supervisor, which he did.

According to Brown, the security guard made a racially offensive statement during the encounter. That's when he said the guard uttered something he'll never forget: "You don't deserve to be here. Get back to the cotton field." "I say, 'What?' and he said it again," Brown said, recalling the moment. According to the civil lawsuit filed last week, Brown's attorneys are seeking $750,000 in damages from Vulcan LLC which owns the Moda Center and Landmark Event Staffing services Inc. which provides security.
