The Giant Encyclopedia of Learning Center Activities Kathy Charner,Maureen Murphy,Jennifer Ford,2005 This book contains hundreds of accessible teacher written learning center activities The GIANT

Encyclopedia of Learning Center Activities is the eighth book in Gryphon House's GIANT Encyclopedia series. The learning centers in this book can either be permanent year-long centers or set up and removed according to the season or children's interests and needs. Through play, young children learn to communicate, interact, and expand their cognitive thinking horizons. The GIANT Encyclopedia of Learning Center Activities provides the resources to make play meaningful and educational for young children. This book offers over 600 activities and 47 learning centers, including familiar permanent centers such as Art or Blocks and new and exciting centers such as Farm Space, Safari, Shoe Store, and Ice Cream Shop. Opportunities in each center for children to work at their own developmental level. Materials lists for each activity, step-by-step instructions, and related books, songs, and poems. Fresh, new ideas from teachers who have used these activities in their own classrooms.

Let Them Play Denita Dinger, Jeff A. Johnson, 2013-01-15. Playtime is focused, purposeful, and full of learning. As they play, children master motor development, learn language and social skills, think creatively, and make cognitive leaps. This uncurriculum is all about fostering children's play, trusting children as capable and engaged learners, and leaving behind boxed curriculums and prescribed activities. Filled with information on the guiding principles that make up an uncurriculum, learning experience ideas, and suggestions for building strong emotional and engaging physical environments, Let Them Play provides support to those who believe in the learning power of play. Jeff A. Johnson spent twenty-five years as a child care provider in center and home-based programs. He now works full time as an author, keynote speaker, podcaster, toymaker, and early learning advocate. He is the author or coauthor of six other Redleaf Press books. Denita Dinger has been a child care provider for more than fifteen years and operates a family child care program. For the last five years, she has been a frequent keynote speaker at early childhood conferences focusing on the topics of hands-on learning and learning through play.

Hands-On Learning! Gwen Snyder Kaltman, 2009-04-14. The book is a wonderful brainstorm of activities, making this an extremely useful and user-friendly resource for early childhood professionals. Michelle Barnea, Early Childhood Consultant. This text will quickly become a favorite for busy teachers wanting to provide engaging learning activities in their classrooms. Roxie Ahlbrecht, Second Grade Teacher, Robert Frost Elementary School, Sioux Falls, SD. An excellent supplement to any curriculum and to an early childhood teacher's bag of tricks. The activities are bound to engage young children's curiosity as they explore everyday objects with a new perspective. Judy Zimmerman, Executive Director, Mailman Segal Institute for Early Childhood Studies, Nova Southeastern University. Plan lessons from a child-centered perspective. Teachers of young children are always looking for fresh, hands-on activities to engage their students and build their knowledge of the world through firsthand experiences with objects. This innovative resource guides teachers in developing tactile lessons utilizing inexpensive, readily available objects. Ideal as a supplement to a primary curriculum as well as for learning centers, this volume includes more than 1,000 sample activities using materials such as cotton balls, paper, and wheels. The activities are organized into 16 themes and grouped into the areas of literacy, mathematics, science, social studies, physical development, and creativity.

Reflected throughout the book is a unique approach that Presents a new and simple way to design themes and activities that guarantees hands on learning experiences Complements any curriculum Offers suggestions on how to modify activities to respond to children s developmental levels Includes an additional list of over 60 generic tactile activities that can be adapted for a variety of content areas Hands On Learning is an ideal resource for early childhood educators seeking to provide positive experiential learning opportunities for young students

Success on the Spectrum Emily Wiskera,Anna

Smith,Tina Sue Fletcher,Lynda Wilbur,Francis Yong Chen,2024-01-04 The role of arts and cultural institutions is changing Once viewed as stewards of objects institutions are increasingly upheld as stewards of people spaces where the diversity of human experience is asserted explored and celebrated As such they function as public resources and should be equally accessible to all members of diverse communities Individuals with autism spectrum disorder account for a significant portion of the community Advocates are working to shift attitudes and nomenclature with terms such as neurodiversity and sensory friendly becoming more commonplace With this cultural institutions are putting effort into creating tailored programs and resources to welcome neurodiverse visitors who have historically been excluded from these spaces Despite their desire to connect many cultural workers fear they lack the expertise or resources needed to effectively create inclusive spaces and experiences This book s content is presented by museum educators arts administrators occupational therapists and school psychologists contributors with different expertise and perspectives on the stakes of cultural arts experiences for neurodiverse visitors We offer advice based on what has worked for us and share the sometimes difficult lessons learned along the way However this advice comes with the caution there is no one size fits all solution To be truly successful arts and cultural institutions must respond to their unique community and work within the resources and limitations of their institution Our practical goals for the reader are threefold To understand the value of programming for neurodiverse visitors and effectively communicate this to others To build a toolkit of strategies and resources for neurodiverse visitors to have successful visits to cultural institutions no matter the staff size budget or current stages of accessibility To develop evaluation strategies to gauge the impact of offerings for neurodiverse visitors with results that help the reader improve grow and refine for the future
