Study Guide Chapter Questions

For Reading Warm-Ups

1. Do you have any hobbies? Describe a hobby or activity that has taken up a large part of your life. (For example, I love to coach/ride and exercise. One year, I bought a ton of gear and made sweeping in my family's tent and went for Christmas. I was stressed and had to start to exercise in order to finish all my projects by Christmas.)
2. Explain the hobby and why it took up so much of your time.
3. Do you have any brothers or sisters? If so, how close are you to them? What do you think these siblings are to close or distant?
4. How close are you to your parents? What are some things that connect you to or distance you from your parents?
5. Describe your favorite place to relax. What is it about that place that attracts you?
6. List a few things your parents or other adults in your life have tried to warn you against in your life. Did you listen to their warnings? What happened if you didn't?
7. Do you think you are ready to write your life story? At what age do you think you would be ready to write about your life.

Questions

1. Setting: This story deals with Maclean's youth and fly-fishing with his father and brother on The Big Lost River in Montana. The setting is an essential part of who each character is and how they relate to each other. Find three quotes from the story that represent the character's relationship to the area they live in.
2. What do the boys assume about the discipline? What is the favorite discipline and what is his special skill?
3. How do the two brothers answer the question their father asks, "What is the chief end of man?"
4. How can fly-fishing be interpreted as a "religious" experience? According to the novel, what aspects of fly-fishing can be linked to the idea of "glorifying god?"
5. How does their father "exchange" between parents?
6. Explain the link between Grace, Art, and education.
