THE REDEMPTION

where mortality is measured by its most unforgiving enemy...time.

Metareference across Media: Theory and Case Studies, 2009-01-01 Strange as it may seem Cervantes's novel Don Quixote Marc Forster's film Stranger than Fiction Shakespeare's play A Midsummer Night's Dream Pere Borrell del Caso's painting Escaping Criticism reproduced on the cover of the present volume and Mozart's sextet A Musical Joke all share one common feature they include a meta dimension Metaization the movement from a first cognitive referential or communicative level to a higher one on which first level phenomena self reflexively become objects of reflection reference and communication in their own right is in fact a common feature not only of human thought and language but also of the arts and media in general However research into this issue has so far predominantly focussed on literature where a highly differentiated albeit strictly monomedial critical toolbox exists

Metareference across Media remedies this onesidedness and closes the gap between literature and other media by providing a transmedial framework for analysing metaphenomena The essays transcend the current notion of metafiction pinpoint examples of metareference in hitherto neglected areas discuss the capacity for metaization of individual media or genres from a media comparative perspective and explore major historical forms and functions as well aspects of the development of metaization in cultural history Stemming from diverse disciplinary and methodological backgrounds the contributors propose new and refined concepts and models and cover a broad range of media including fiction drama poetry comics photography film computer games classical as well as popular music painting and architecture This collection of essays which also contains a detailed theoretical introduction will be relevant to students and scholars from a wide variety of fields intermediality studies semiotics literary theory and criticism musicology art history and film studies Billboard

Video Games between Postcolonialism and Postcommunism Andrei Nae,2025-12-14 Although in recent years there has been a growing interest in the racial politics of video games the wider context of colonialism is yet to benefit from the same level of academic consideration Moreover when colonialism is tackled directly the approach is limited to a Global North Global South or West East binary that does not do justice to the multiple forms of coloniality that have existed around the world This volume sets out to fill the existing gap in scholarship on colonialism in video games by featuring a collection of essays that together provide insight into the complex ramifications of coloniality and its multiple intersecting power structures not only in video games of the Global North Global South or West East divides but also in regions traditionally overlooked by postcolonial theory One such region that this volume focuses on is Eastern Europe and its postcommunist contexts that intersect with coloniality in video games produced inside or outside the region Through its methodological diversity and non provincial understanding of colonial power relations the present volume will offer scholars and students of game studies and area studies a rich perspective on video games entanglement with colonial legacies
