OCR Ancient History GCSE Component 1 Sam Baddeley,Paul Fowler,Lucy R. Nicholas,James Renshaw,2017-08-24 This textbook is endorsed by OCR and supports the specification for GCSE Ancient History first teaching September 2017 It covers the whole of Component 1 both the compulsory Period Study and the three optional Depth Studies Period Study The Persian Empire 559 465 BC by James Renshaw Depth Study From Tyranny to Democracy 546 483 BC by Sam Baddeley Depth Study Athens in the Age of Pericles 462 429 BC by Paul Fowler and James Renshaw Depth Study Alexander the Great 356 323 BC by Lucy Nicholas Was propaganda Persia s greatest weapon How did Athens create democracy Does Pericles Athens deserve to be remembered as civilised or barbaric How did Alexander dominate the ancient world by the age of 32 This book raises these and other key questions GCSE students and their teachers will explore key political and social developments of the Greek and Persian worlds through the eyes of ancient historians and archaeology This book invites us to look at ancient societies in a new light and helps explain the development of the modern world The ideal preparation for the final examinations all content is presented by experts and experienced teachers in a clear and accessible narrative Ancient literary and visual sources are described and analysed with supporting images Helpful student features include study questions further reading and boxes focusing in on key people events and terms Practice questions and exam guidance prepare students for assessment A Companion Website is available at www.bloomsbury.com/anc_hist_gcse The School Science Review ,2007 Classical Civilisation and Ancient History in British Secondary Education Edith Hall,Arlene Holmes-Henderson,2025-07-08 An Open Access edition will be available on publication on the Liverpool University Press website thanks to funding from the Arts and Humanities Research Council AHRC In the UK A Levels and GCSEs in Classical Civilisation and Ancient History offer exciting avenues through which to access the cultures of people who spoke ancient Greek and Latin and their neighbours across the ancient Mediterranean and Black Sea worlds They are inherently interdisciplinary offering an outstanding opportunity to study a civilisation in the round using diverse sources from literary and philosophical texts to legal documents inscriptions art architecture and archaeology Yet many people are either unaware of the existence of these courses or do not understand their contents This unprecedented study by two Classics Professors at the University of Durham with extensive experience of teaching in schools and HEIs charts the subjects historical development and emergence in their current form since the mid 20th century explaining and illustrating their contents It describes the skills and competencies that they confer which are valued by university admissions offices and employers alike It presents the results of interviews with several significant participants in the story of these classical subjects and of questionnaires filled in by many additional teachers and students It also offers practical advice on how to introduce Classical Civilisation and or Ancient History at secondary level with guides to bibliographical and other resources PISA Science 2006 Rodger W. Bybee, Barry McCrae, 2009 Comprehensive thought provoking and indispensable PISA Science 2006 provides educators with a top down view of where we stand today in science education and what this means for students and educators State Sponsored Literature Asha Rogers, 2020-03-05 Debates about the value of the literary rarely register the expressive acts of state subsidy sponsorship and cultural policy that have shaped post war Britain In State Sponsored Literature Asha Rogers argues that the modern state was a major material condition of literature even as its efforts were relative partial and prone to disruption Drawing from neglected and occasionally unexpected archives she shows how the state became an integral and conflicted custodian of literary freedom in the postcolonial world as beliefs about literature s public were radically challenged by the unrivalled migration to Britain at the end of Empire State Sponsored Literature retells the story of literature s place in post war Britain through original analysis of the institutional forces behind canon formation and contestation from the literature programmes of the British Council and Arts Council and the UK s fraught relations with UNESCO to GCSE literature anthologies and the origins of The Satanic Verses in migrant Camden The state did not shape literary production in a vacuum Rogers argues but its policies practices and priorities were also inexorably shaped in turn Demonstrating how archival work can potentially transform our understanding of literature this book challenges how we think about literature s value by asking what state involvement has meant for writers readers institutions and the ideal of autonomy itself French T. Murray, 2005 This is a book and audio CD offering study and reference support for the French GCSE course as well as being useful for GCSE examinations and Scottish Standard Grade OCR 21st Century Science a Robert Woodcock, Trevor Baker, Neil Dixon, 2011-09 With clear and concise revision notes that cover everything you ll need to know for the exam this effective OCR GCSE Science revision guide supports active revision for students working at all levels Plenty of quick tests and practice questions test and reinforce understanding of the key content Providing a student friendly uncluttered approach to GCSE revision this OCR Gateway Science A revision guide is suitable for all levels and contains succinct revision notes and practice questions that focus on the core content needed for the exams Included in this book clear and concise coverage of all the exam assessed content simple and engaging explanations quick tests and practice questions throughout to test and reinforce understanding key words and supporting glossary Separate
