Literary Aspects N. Prasanna Lakshmi, 2020-11-23 Broadly speaking Indian English IE is that variety of English used by a large number of educated Indians as a second language Kachru 1983 used the term Indian English for the variety of English used generally in the South Asian countries David Crystal 2003 observes that in India the numbers of English speakers outrank the combined number of speakers in USA and UK A considerable body of creative writing is also produced in English and is increasing steadily Writers like Mulk Raj Anand R K Narayan and Raja Rao and Arundhati Roy have become part of India's literary tradition and they may continue to hold their status in world literature too. The use of Indian English in different domains in interaction with other regional languages has resulted in its development and recognition as a distinct variety in its own right. It is an attempt to study the styles of two of the prominent writers of Indian English namely R K Narayan and Arundhati Roy by examining the different linguistic and literary aspects as reflected in their selected fictions. R K Narayan's Swami and Friends (SF) and The Guide (TG) and Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things (GST). An examination of selected fictions of the two writers of this study has shown that stylistic analysis can be a rich field of enquiry in Indian English Studies of the present kind can be used as a source material for applied linguistics. They can be extended for a comparative study of stylistic traits of Indian writers and non Indian writers. The study suggests the possibility of further research in comparative stylistic studies in Indian English fiction on the one hand and American British or Australian fiction on the other. Our comparison of the two writers one of the colonial period and the other belonging to the post colonial period suggests that a more extensive stylistic study of Indian writing in English is called for to understand the changing phases of English in the socio cultural ethos of the Indian society. The book is organized as follows. Chapter I is an introduction to Indian English its importance and the objective of the research. Chapter II deals with review of literature on Indian English as well as stylistic studies in Indian English fiction. Chapter III is concerned with a brief introduction to the texts chosen for study. Chapter IV discusses the methodology adopted in the study. Chapter V deals with the results of the study and makes a comparison between the two authors styles. Chapter VI consists of a summary of the research and concludes with suggestions regarding further research needs.

Cultural Imperialism and the Indo-English Novel Fawzia Afzal-Khan, 2010-11-01. This is a provocative piece of scholarship and it engages an intriguing aspect of postcolonial writing. Choice Fawzia Afzal Khan's excellent book could stand as a reply to those hostile critics who today attack multiculturalism for reductively politicizing literature. In her trenchant discussion Afzal Khan shows just how complex the politics of liberation can be for colonial and postcolonial novelists. Gerald Graff, University of Chicago. Afzal Khan's study is a major new contribution to the related fields of Indian writing in English and post colonial literatures. Focused primarily on four Indian novelists its arguments and conclusions are of vital importance to our understanding of the many new literatures from the former British colonies. Through her judicious use of the theoretical constructs of Frantz Fanon, Fredric Jameson, Edward Said and others, Afzal Khan has produced a fresh and compelling interpretation of the Indian English novel. Amritjit Singh, Rhode Island College. Cultural Imperialism and the Indo English Novel focuses on the novels of R K Narayan, Anita Desai, Kamala Markandaya and Salman Rushdie and explores the tension in these novels between ideology and the generic fictive strategies that shape ideology or are shaped by it. Fawzia Afzal Khan raises the important question of how much the usage of certain ideological strategies actually helps the ex colonized writer deal effectively with post colonial and post independence trauma and whether or not the choice of a particular genre or mode employed by a writer presupposes the extent to which that writer will be successful.

in challenging the ideological strategies of containment perpetuated by most Western orientalist texts and writers She argues that the formal or generic choices of the four writers studied here reveal that they are using genre as an ideological strategy of liberation to help free their peoples and cultures from the hegemonic strategies of containment imposed upon them She concludes that the works studied here constitute an ideological rebuttal of Western writers denigrating containment of non Western cultures She also notes that self criticism as implied in Rushdie s works is not to be confused with self hatred a theme found in Naipaul s work

Stories are everywhere around us from the ads on TV or music video clips to the more sophisticated stories told by books or movies. Everything comes wrapped in a story and the means employed to weave the narrative thread are just as important as the story itself. In this context, there is a need to understand the role storytelling plays in contemporary society which has changed drastically in recent decades. Modern global society is no longer exclusively dominated by the time tested narrative media such as literature or films because new media such as videogames or social platforms have changed the way we understand, create and replicate stories. The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides the relevant theoretical framework that concerns storytelling in modern society as well as the newest and most varied analyses and case studies in the field. The chapters of this extensive volume follow the construction and interpretation of stories across a plethora of contemporary media and disciplines. By bringing together radical forms of storytelling in traditional disciplines and methods of telling stories across newer media, this book intersects themes that include interactive storytelling and narrative theory across advertisements, social media and knowledge sharing platforms among others. It is targeted towards professionals, researchers and students working or studying in the fields of narratology, literature, media studies, marketing and communication, anthropology, religion or film studies. Moreover, for interested executives and entrepreneurs or prospective influencers, the chapters dedicated to marketing and social media may also provide insights into both the theoretical and the practical aspects of harnessing the power of storytelling in order to create a cohesive and impactful online image. Crabtracks, 2021-12-28. The essays in this collection celebrate the signal achievement of Dieter Riemenschneider in helping found and consolidate the study of postcolonial anglophone literatures in Germany and Europe. As well as poems, a short story, drawings of the Indian scene, the first and abiding focus of this scholar's work and letters of reminiscence, one quite grave, there are revealing contributions of a literary historical nature on the establishment of anglophone, especially African literatures as an academic discipline within Germany, the UK and Northern Europe, generally, as well as a group of searching reflections on such topics of postcolonial import as globalization and the applicability of models to the literature of the indigene in Canada and Australia. The largest section is devoted to individual topics, each treatment implicitly keyed to approaches to the teaching of New Literatures texts. Writers covered include Anita Desai, landscape and memory, Salman Rushdie, painting in The Moor's Last Sign, Charlotte Brontë, imperial discourse in Jane Eyre, Derek Walcott, Omeros and cultural cohabitation and Witi Ihimaera, his rewriting of Katherine Mansfield. Topics dealt with include music and radio in West Africa the African literary hit parade the New Zealand prose poem Canadian and Australian war fiction the Middle Passage in the American and Caribbean novel Paul Theroux's uneasy relations with V S Naipaul and the colonial discourse of illness and recuperation The volume closes with Dieter Riemenschneider's very first and most recent critical essays the one a classic on Mulk Raj Anand the other a challenging and doubtless controversial thesis on postcolonial minority writing A select bibliography of Riemenschneider's work books edited publications journal articles and book contributions reviews and broadcasts rounds off this substantial collection

THE ART OF CHARACTERISATION Anju Pathak ,2024-11-28 R K Narayan was a renowned Indian writer who lived from 1906 2001 and was known for his humorous and insightful portrayals of everyday life in the fictional town of Malgudi in South India While his work is not overtly feminist his stories often offer nuanced perspectives on gender roles and relationships Narayan's female characters are complex and multifaceted defying stereotypes of submissive and passive women For instance in his novel The Dark Room Savitri the protagonist refuses to be constrained by societal expectations of a traditional wife and mother She resents her husband's controlling behaviour and strives for self expression and independence even if it means defying her husband's wishes However it is important to note that Narayan's portrayal of gender roles and power dynamics in Indian society reflects the cultural norms and values of the time in which he was writing In The Guide Narayan explores the theme of female desire and agency through Rosie a dancer who pursues her passion despite societal stigma and disapproval Despite the obstacles she faces as a divorced woman Rosie asserts her independence and follows her dreams challenging the patriarchal norms of her society
