Lamma Adam Benkato,Amina Zarrugh,2023-06-18 Lamma aims to provide a forum for critically understanding the complex ideas values social configurations histories and material realities in Libya Recognizing and insisting on the urgent need for such a forum we give attention to as wide a range of disciplines sources and approaches as possible foregrounding especially those which have previously received less scholarly attention This includes but is not limited to anthropology art gender history linguistics literature music performance studies politics religion and urban studies in addition to their intersections their subfields the places in between and critical theoretical and postcolonial approaches thereto Lamma is a space where these fields interact and draw from one another and where scholars and students from inside and outside of Libya gather to redefine and reshape Libyan Studies We believe that access to research is not the privilege of a few but the right of all and that knowledge production should be inclusive For these reasons the journal takes its name from the Arabic word lamma a gathering The contributions in this second issue help to open up space for interrelated discussions on a variety of topics almost all largely neglected in the contemporary scholarly study of Libya The focal point of this issue is the reflective contributions by members of a roundtable discussion Methods and Sources for a New Generation of Libyan Studies which took place at the 2020 MESA conference We also mark the publication of a watershed book on genocide in colonial Libya with a trio of responses As ever we believe in the generative power in dialoguing and mixing works of art literature and scholarship as we seek to shape and re shape new discussions on about from and in Libya

Dead Man's Cañon Lauran Paine,2017-09-12 The trouble began for Sheriff Claude Rainey when the Hightower Ranch cowboys discovered a mummified man and his horse in a desert canyon near Springville Arizona both shot in the head Ordinarily that should have been the end of it Few men riding the outlaw trail up out of Mexico make it through that godforsaken country What troubled Rainey and the townsmen however was what Hightower foreman Al Trail had brought into town and given to the sheriff Near the body the cowboys had dug up a box that contained five bloodstained packets of hundred dollar bills amounting to 10 000 This only deepened the mystery After all who kills a man and leaves behind 10 000 The only clue to the identity of the dead man is the shriveled up brand on the horse which he sketches and sends to the registrar The money is stowed in the only steel safe in Apache County while the sheriff and the townsmen wait to see who will ride in to Springville to claim it It is Sheriff Rainey s hope that the town can keep the money and build a proper schoolhouse Then two men arrive within weeks of each other The first Fernando Br on informs Rainey that US Marshal Jonas Gantt and his horse have been found shot in the head on his land across the border in Mexico He gives him Gantt s personal effects The circumstances are similar to those of the dead man and his horse found in the canyon The second man is Deputy US Marshal Arch Clayton who informs Rainey that the dead man was his partner back in Raton New Mexico Both men arouse Rainey s suspicion and add to the mounting questions about the identity of the bushwhacking killer foremost whether he will show up in Springville and what it is he s really after
