Just Not That Likable Gloria J. Romero, 2021-10-19 Gloria Romero former California Senate Majority Leader and Professor Emeritus of Psychology shatters the glass ceiling in a sweeping takedown of gender bias at the workplace and the price women and society pay for the virulent double standard of the likability factor that persists in the workplace She exposes the link between success and likability that 21st century women leaders face in politics and the workplace In a book both accessible and enlightening Senator Romero stands as a woman unafraid to break down barriers for women As the first female Majority Leader of the upper house in California's State Legislature she authored major reform laws in public education criminal justice governmental ethics and transparency Just Not That Likable is the story of a trailblazer who understood that while the 20th century sexism of unequal pay for equal work had been outlawed and anti discrimination laws had become common there was still a hidden likability penalty and the so called double bind applied to successful women The book features the most comprehensive review to date of what is known about the double bind faced by women executives and leaders they are expected to exhibit strength and lead but are penalized as being abrasive or exhibiting characteristics stereotyped as being masculine Drawing on her own life as well Senator Romero's journey leads her to the realization that when women smash through the persisting ceiling still with us in the 21st century the shards cut too deep and too often these practices and behaviors shut down opportunity for our daughters sisters and each other Just Not That Likable recognizes that our workplaces must promote practices policies and cultures which confront and disassemble this double bind for women

Tangled Up in Blue Rosa Brooks, 2021-02-09

Named one of the best nonfiction books of the year by The Washington Post Tangled Up in Blue is a wonderfully insightful book that provides a lens to critically analyze urban policing and a road map for how our most dispossessed citizens may better relate to those sworn to protect and serve The Washington Post Remarkable Brooks has produced an engaging page turner that also outlines many broadly applicable lessons and sensible policy reforms Foreign Affairs Journalist and law professor Rosa Brooks goes beyond the blue wall of silence in this radical inside examination of American policing In her forties with two children a spouse a dog a mortgage and a full time job as a tenured law professor at Georgetown University Rosa Brooks decided to become a cop A liberal academic and journalist with an enduring interest in law's troubled relationship with violence Brooks wanted the kind of insider experience that would help her understand how police officers make sense of their world and whether that world can be changed In 2015 against the advice of everyone she knew she applied to become a sworn armed reserve police officer with the Washington DC Metropolitan Police Department Then as now police violence was constantly in the news The Black Lives Matter movement was gaining momentum protests wracked America's cities and each day brought more stories of cruel corrupt cops police violence and the racial disparities that mar our criminal justice system Lines were being drawn and people were taking sides But as Brooks made her way through the police academy and began work as a patrol officer in the poorest most crime ridden neighborhoods of the nation's capital she found a reality far more complex than the headlines suggested In Tangled Up in Blue Brooks recounts her experiences inside the usually closed world of policing From street shootings and domestic violence calls to the behind the scenes police work during Donald Trump's 2016 presidential inauguration Brooks presents a revelatory account of what it's like inside the blue wall of silence She issues an urgent call for new laws and institutions and argues that in a nation increasingly divided by race class ethnicity geography and ideology a truly transformative approach to policing requires us to move beyond sound bites slogans and stereotypes An explosive and groundbreaking investigation Tangled Up in Blue complicates matters rather than simplifies them and gives pause both to those who think police can do no wrong and those who think they can do no right

Making Meaning of Loss Richard L. Hayes, 2022-10-31

Making Meaning of Loss Change and Challenge Across the Lifespan is about how change brings loss to our lives how we make meaning of loss and how our experience with loss directs our encounters with loss in the future Each loss challenges us in this way to rethink our world view to ask who we have become and to reinvent ourselves anew Taking a lifespan approach Hayes examines how we make sense of the losses that change brings in each period of our lives and how the way in which we meet the challenge that each loss brings directs our encounters with loss in the future In addition he provides suggestions for how earlier losses can become fruitful allies in encounters with change in the present and how caregivers can help others to make meaning of the loss in their lives Above all this book is about how caregivers can help others learn from the losses in their lives and to recognize what part of the past to bring along into the present in constructing a more reliable self for meeting the challenges of an uncertain future
