Writing to inform, explain & describe

This newspaper project is an opportunity to present a collection of written works that you will be producing as our class moves through John Steinbeck's Of Mice and Men. You should present these works in a local newspaper designed to be read by people living in the 1920s or 1930s in the vicinity of Soledad/ the ranch/ surrounding towns. Included in your newspaper will be the following items:

- 1) Two work wanted ads: one for George, one for Lenny
- 2) One letter-to-the-editor (written by a character)
- 4) One obituary
- 5) One front page news article (detailing a key event at the ranch)
- 6) One opinion column (expressing and supporting an opinion about a key societal issue)

Adding small extra items (sports results, photos, etc.) will add to the overall effect of your presentation. This project must be word-processed and should fit on two double-sided sheets of A-4 paper. Further instructions will be given about each individual news item later.

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2016-03-10 This popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms. It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts and the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to them. Throughout the textbook, readers are encouraged to raise and explore inquiry-based questions in response to authentic dilemmas and issues they face in the critical literature classroom. New in this edition, the text shows how these approaches to fostering responses to literature also work as rich tools to address the Common Core English Language Arts Standards. Each chapter is organized around specific questions that English educators often hear in working with pre-service teachers. Suggested pedagogical methods are modelled by inviting readers to interact with the book through critical inquiry methods for responding to texts. Readers are engaged in considering authentic dilemmas and issues facing literature teachers through inquiry-based responses to authentic case narratives.
