mind immediately returned to the horrific figure holding aloft the dead hero from the vault Outside that ominous scraping noise continued Up and down back and forth She strained but it took quite a while before she was able to orientate herself enough in the pitch blackness to figure out from which direction the sound came If the sound whatever it is comes from here the loudest this must be Knocking around the entire cell the difference in tone was almost imperceptible but finally she found a place where the sound was less thick maybe even hollow on the other side Well what can it hurt to try Putting her back against the stone and digging her heels in hard she pushed It may as well have been a cave wall for how much it moved She dug in and shoved again gritting her teeth and pushing with all her might Woops Adria yelped as her feet shot out from under her and she crashed down hard on her tailbone She pushed herself off the dirt and gritted her teeth One more try Adria one more try This thing s gonna move it just has to Adria gasped when her second shove worked far better than she thought The stone practically flew backwards out of the wall and away from her back Through empty space she fell Tumbling through the gaping hole in her little chamber and into a hallway Adria blinked as a cloud of dust stung her eyes She stood stumbled and tripped again falling forward this time That time though something caught her something very large and very very strong
