

Persuasive Speech Pro Death Penalty

What is the death penalty? What is its purpose? Do you know anyone that has went through it? Well first, I would like to say good afternoon. I will be speaking on the crucial subject of death sentences. The death penalty has always been a topic of discussion for many centuries, and has been given to people legally convicted of capital crime, typically murder. People in support of this act believe that convicted murderers must face execution as a consequence for their actions. Others against it believe that the penalty is nothing but legalized murdering and is immoral. The death penalty has been widely used in the United States as I think the death penalty should be banned because we pay millions for the death penalty system, it puts innocent lives at risk, and there's a better option to consider which is life without parole.

The death penalty should be banned because, first, we pay millions for the death penalty system. Oregonians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty organization stated, "Washington county murder cases cost more than 1.5 million." Also the organization stated that, "It's estimated that the total prosecution and defense costs to the state and countries equal 9 million per year." Another piece of evidence stated that "the Oregon Judicial Department would save 2.3 million annually if the death penalty were eliminated." This proves and gives an example of how the Washington county murder cases in Oregon are costly, and the death penalty would even
