Practicing Ethnography Lynda Mannik, Karen McGarry, 2017-11-20 This methods book is theoretically informed but practical in approach and reflects the challenges and concerns of contemporary ethnography in North America The authors emphasize an inductive ethnographic approach to research Each chapter offers an overview of a particular method methodological issue or research trend followed by an extended ethnographic vignette written exclusively for this volume by contemporary anthropologists about their fieldwork experiences These highly readable vignettes showcase how ethnography informs contemporary anthropological theory offering a unique way to discuss major concepts methods and methodologies Try This and Possible Projects sections encourage newcomers to anthropology to apply what they have learned in their own ethnographic experiences

Travel and Transformation Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, 2016-02-24 Travel and tourism have a long association with the notion of transformation both in terms of self and social collectives What is surprising however is that this association has on the whole remained relatively underexplored and unchallenged with little in the way of a corpus of academic literature surrounding these themes Instead much of the literature to date has focused upon describing and categorising tourism and travel experiences from a supply side perspective with travellers themselves defined in terms of their motivations and interests While the tourism field can lay claim to several significant milestone contributions there have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues arising from the travel transformation nexus The opportunity to explore the socio cultural dimensions of transformation through travel has thus far been missed Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature

Material Cultures in Canada Thomas Allen, Jennifer Blair, 2015-06-08 Material Cultures in Canada presents the vibrant and diverse field of material culture studies in Canadian literary artistic and political contexts today The first of its kind this collection features sixteen essays by leading scholars in Canada each of whom examines a different object of study including the beaver geraniums comics water a musical playlist and the human body The book s three sections focus in turn on objects that are persistently material on things whose materiality blends into the immaterial and on the materials of spaces Contributors highlight some of the most exciting new developments in the field such as the emergence of new materialism affect theory globalization studies and environmental criticism Although the book has a Canadian centre the majority of its contributors consider objects that cross borders or otherwise resist national affiliation This collection will be valuable to readers within and outside of Canada who are interested in material culture studies and in addition will appeal to anyone interested in the central debates taking place in Canadian political and cultural life today such as climate change citizenship shifts in urban and small town life and the persistence of imperialism

Immigration, Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada ,2019-01-21 Canada s history since its birth as a nation one hundred and fifty years ago is one of immigration nation building and contested racial and ethnic relations In Immigration Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada Retrospects and Prospects scholars provide a wide ranging overview of this history with a core theme being one of enduring racial and ethnic conflict and inequality The volume is organized around four themes where in each theme selected racial and ethnic issues are examined critically Part 1 focuses on the history of Canadian immigration and nation building while Part 2 looks at situating contemporary Canada in terms of the debates in the literature on ethnicity and race Part 3 revisits specific racial and ethnic studies in Canada and finally in Part 4 a state of the art is provided on immigration and racial and ethnic studies while

Embracing the Beat of Term: An Mental Symphony within Reclaiming Canadian Bodies Visual Media And Representation Cultural Studies

In a world taken by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of quick communication, the melodic beauty and mental symphony developed by the published word usually fade into the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Reclaiming Canadian Bodies Visual Media And Representation Cultural Studies a marvelous fictional value full of raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this moving assessment, we will discover the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
