Recollecting History Beyond Borders Capt:

Recollecting History beyond Borders Lhoussain Simour, 2014-11-19 Recollecting History beyond Borders looks closely at the experience of Moroccan captives acrobats and dancing women in America throughout various historical periods It explores the mobility of Moroccans beyond borders and their cultural interactions with the American self and civilization and offers a broad discussion on the negotiation of the complex dynamics of representation and on the various discursive ramifications of the cultural contacts initiated by ordinary Moroccan travellers I

Imagination without Borders Laura Hein, Rebecca Jennison, 2020-06-01 Tomiyama Taeko a Japanese visual artist born in 1921 is changing the way World War II is remembered in Japan Asia and the world Her work deals with complicated moral and emotional issues of empire and war responsibility that cannot be summed up in simple slogans which makes it compelling for more than just its considerable beauty Japanese today are still grappling with the effects of World War II and largely because of the inconsistent and ambivalent actions of the government they are widely seen as resistant to accepting responsibility for their nation's violent actions against others during the decades of colonialism and war Yet some individuals such as Tomiyama have produced nuanced and reflective commentaries on those experiences and on the difficulty of disentangling herself from the priorities of the nation despite her lifelong political dissent Tomiyama's sophisticated visual commentary on Japan's history and on the global history in which Asia is embedded provides a compelling guide through the difficult terrain of modern historical remembrance in a distinctively Japanese voice
