Household expenditures across the border generally fell throughout 2011. But persistent unemployment and economic downturns in neighboring countries are expected to hit personal budgets hard in 2012, with the cost of the debt ceiling and repeat quarterly tax adjustments and stimulus reductions also adding to the pressure on the personal budget. Additionally, the regulatory burden on the insurance and pharmaceuticals are also expected to increase this year, and pay roll taxes and other payroll-related charges are expected to rise as a result of the new payroll taxes.

Multi-Sector Engagement Initiatives is currently only implemented in countries where there is a significant number of stakeholders. It is used for projects that need the efforts of companies, university students, the general public, etc. Encouraging and motivating to the general public, encouraging them to participate in the work of projects, etc. It is suggested to develop and use the existing study tools (questionnaires, studies, etc.) and use them to collect the data of the study. Following the initial presentation, attendees participating in the panel were given insights into the first steps of such projects. The discussion raised issues of commercial viability and funding, as well as the importance of good community links. Following a short break, the discussion then continued into further questions, with a panel member also paying tribute to the work of the group. The panel was chaired by Peter Smith, a former government minister, who stressed the importance of the group's work and the need to continue to work on the
