SIGOP-III User's Manual Edward B. Lieberman, 1983 This manual explains how to use the SIGOP III signal optimization computer program The program which is written in FORTRAN is designed to generate traffic signal timing plans for both grid networks and arterials The program not only optimizes splits and offsets and selects the optimum cycle length it also outputs time space diagrams In addition to the normal measures of effectiveness associated with traffic flow estimates of fuel consumption and vehicle emissions are provided Industrial Construction File ,1955 Architecture and Systems

Ecology William W. Braham, 2015-08-11 Modern buildings are both wasteful machines that can be made more efficient and instruments of the massive metropolitan system engendered by the power of high quality fuels A comprehensive method of environmental design must reconcile the techniques of efficient building design with the radical urban and economic reorganization that we face Over the coming century we will be challenged to return to the renewable resource base of the eighteenth century city with the knowledge technologies and expectations of the twenty first century metropolis This book explores the architectural implications of systems ecology which extends the principles of thermodynamics from the nineteenth century focus on more efficient machinery to the contemporary concern with the resilient self organization of ecosystems Written with enough technical material to explain the methods it does not include in text equations or calculations relying instead on the energy system diagrams to convey the argument Architecture and Systems Ecology has minimal technical jargon and an emphasis on intelligible design conclusions making it suitable for architecture students and professionals who are engaged with the fundamental issues faced by sustainable design The energy systems language provides a holistic context for the many kinds of performance already evaluated in architecture from energy use to material selection and even the choice of building style It establishes the foundation for environmental principles of design that embrace the full complexity of our current situation Architecture succeeds best when it helps shape accommodate and represent new ways of living together Mergent International Manual ,2009 Who's who in New Zealand and the
