Similar to the research papers that were written for Animal Farm by George Orwell, each student will complete a miniature research paper on Of Mice and Men by John Steinbeck.

Requirements

Each student should write an essay of less than two pages, following standard MLA format as we discussed in class.

Your paper will be due on Wednesday, September 26. You may submit your paper in class or electronically by 11:59 P.M.

Your paper will be graded using the same rubric as the previous research paper, which can be found online under the Of Mice and Men entry on Classroom Connections.

Of Mice, Models, and Men Andrew N. Rowan, 1984-01-01 Too much emotion and insufficient fact This paradox has long characterized the controversy surrounding animal research Of Mice Models and Men is the first exhaustive treatment of all areas empirical and conceptual relevant to the use of animals in research It is also the first study to combine regard for the welfare of laboratory animals with a knowledgeable acceptance of the continuing need for research involving animals The book has another rare quality It is virtually devoid of any of the emotional and exaggerated attacks that have characterized many of the other publications in this area Instead it presents in a manner accessible to both sides all the relevant historical social and scientific information required to form an opinion on the subject The book thus achieves a most difficult goal that of bridging the gap between researchers using animals and animal welfare advocates while pointing out the need for a more active program to promote laboratory animal welfare
