Prison Dans Ville Michel Fize:

Men in Prison Victor Serge, 2014-04-01 Everything in this book is fictional and everything is true wrote Victor Serge in the epigraph to Men in Prison I have attempted through literary creation to bring out the general meaning and human content of a personal experience The author of Men in Prison served five years in French penitentiaries 1912 1917 for the crime of criminal association in fact for his courageous refusal to testify against his old comrades the infamous Tragic Bandits of French anarchism While I was still in prison Serge later recalled fighting off tuberculosis insanity depression the spiritual poverty of the men the brutality of the regulations I already saw one kind of justification of that infernal voyage in the possibility of describing it Among the thousands who suffer and are crushed in prison and how few men really know that prison I was perhaps the only one who could try one day to tell all There is no novelist's hero in this novel unless that terrible machine prison is its real hero It is not about me about a few men but about men all men crushed in that dark corner of society Ironically Serge returned to writing upon his release from a GPU prison in Soviet Russia where he was arrested as an anti Stalinist subversive in 1928 He completed Men in Prison and two other novels in semi captivity before he was rearrested and deported to the Gulag in 1933 Serge's classic prison novel has been compared to Dostoyevsky's House of the Dead Koestler's Spanish Testament Genet's Miracle of the Rose and Solzhenitsyn's One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich both for its authenticity and its artistic achievement This edition features a substantial new introduction by translator Richard Greeman situating the work in Serge's life and times

Jail Sentences Andrew Sobanet, 2008-01-01 A long list of canonical writers in Western literature have experienced incarceration and have subsequently written celebrated works about the imprisoned and the condemned The French tradition is no exception writers who produced noteworthy texts while incarcerated or who later wrote about their experiences in prison are found on the literary historical landscape from the medieval era through the twentieth century Prison writing by inmates former guards chaplains teachers and doctors is firmly established as part of the fabric of popular culture and has long attracted the attention of culture critics and scholars Nevertheless scant analysis exists of the prison novel a literary genre that as Andrew Sobanet argues in Jail Sentences uses fiction as a documentary tool Its narrative peculiarities which are the main subjects of Sobanet's study include the use of autobiographical and testimonial techniques to critique the penitentiary system Jail Sentences is the definitive study of the legacy of the Western tradition of prison writing in twentieth century French literature Although Sobanet focuses primarily on French writers Victor Serge Jean Genet Albertine Sarrazin and François Bon his keen sense of literary dialogue pulls into the orbit of his study an international corpus of work from Dostoyevsky to Malcolm X Jail Sentences arrives at a coherent definition of the genre whose unique conventions stem from the innermost regions of our understanding of stories truth fiction and belief
