ePortfolios in Australian Universities Jennifer Rowley, 2016-09-14. This book focuses on essential findings concerning emerging practices of student learning through the teaching and learning benefits of the electronic portfolio ePortfolio in a range of disciplines at Australian universities. It explores the latest research on ePortfolios teaching quality future research directions for tertiary learning and teaching institutional agendas in higher education and the role that the ePortfolios can play in supporting improvements in pedagogic practice and student outcomes. Included in these agendas is research into the development of higher education through the technologising of pedagogy learner identities in discrete disciplines and the praxis of individual university teachers. The book covers accounts of academic learning success and challenges across current higher education subject areas. By presenting case study accounts of ePortfolio use it reveals the importance of defining and documenting how we can meaningfully develop learner portfolios in research teaching and learning at Australian universities. With an intentional research base the book draws on work conducted inside and outside Australia and highlights how the ePortfolio can help tertiary staff prepare for the impact of a student created portfolio on teaching learning and subsequent academic scholarship.

Researching edTPA Promises and Problems Peter B. Swanson, Susan A. Hildebrandt, 2018-04-01. Teacher effectiveness and licensure in the United States continue to be scrutinized at the state and national levels. At present 40 states plus the District of Columbia have adopted edTPA to inform initial teacher licensure and or certification decisions. American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. edTPA is designed to measure novice teachers readiness to teach their content area with a focus on student learning and principles from research and theory.
