LeEtta Miller has never done anything spontaneous before, but when a girl is the last one at everything, sometimes she has to take the reins into her own hands. What harm could come from kissing a stranger she'll never see again? Benueel Ropp isn't sure he can ever forgive his father for giving away his inheritance. Taking work far from home, Ben hopes to earn enough to build his future, but nowhere in his plans did he predict being kissed by a beautiful stranger or having to marry her. To save both their reputations, he has little choice but to accept the elder's demands. Well, if LeEtta thought he'd flinch, letting her boldness ruin the future he had all mapped out, she was mistaken. He has a dream to work for, and if he has to make sacrifices to reach them, so will she. Who kissed who first? He couldn't even remember anymore.
