Red Cross Trauma Teddies:

The Need to Help Liisa H. Malkki, 2015-09-03 In The Need to Help Liisa H. Malkki shifts the focus of the study of humanitarian intervention from aid recipients to aid workers themselves. The anthropological commitment to understand the motivations and desires of these professionals and how they imagine themselves in the world out there led Malkki to spend more than a decade interviewing members of the international Finnish Red Cross as well as observing Finns who volunteered from their homes through gifts of handwork. The need to help she shows can come from a profound neediness, the need for aid workers and volunteers to be part of the lively world and something greater than themselves and in the case of the elderly who knit trauma teddies and aid bunnies for needy children, the need to fight loneliness and loss of personhood. In seriously examining aspects of humanitarian aid often dismissed as sentimental or trivial, Malkki complicates notions of what constitutes real political work. She traces how the international is always entangled in the domestic, whether in the shape of the need to leave home or handmade gifts that are an aid to sociality and to the imagination of the world. Homespun Knitting Issue 4 - 2023 Magazines Global, Homespun Knitting Issue 4 2023 The Multi-Sided Ethnographer Tim Burger, Usman Mahar, Pascale Schild, Anna-Maria Walter, 2024-02-05 As ethnographic fieldwork blurs the boundaries between private and professional life, ethnographers always appear to be on duty, looking out for valuable encounters and waiting for the next moment of disclosure. Yet what lies in the gaps and pauses of fieldwork? The contributions in this volume, dedicated to anthropologist Martin S. Kefeld, explore methodological and ethical dimensions of multi-sided ethnographic research. Based on diverse cases ranging from hobbies over kinship ties to political activism, the contributors show how personal relationships, passions, and commitments drive ethnographers in and beyond research, shaping the knowledge they create together with others. The Paradise Heights Craft Store Stitch-Up Kate Solly, 2024-12-31 Meet Fleck Parker, Mother Crafter and Amateur Detective. Fleck loves a good puzzle. She spends most of her time feeling invisible, caring for three small children, and that's fine, really. But it does make her brain itch occasionally. When Trixie, fellow school mum and avid crafter, is accused of stealing money from Many Hands, the women's charity known for its charming store full of handmade crafts, Fleck feels compelled to investigate and clear Trixie's name. From playground stake-outs to tailing cars while nursing the baby to sleep, Fleck and Trixie uncover a case more complex than either of them could have imagined. Will they crack the case? Reconnected Andrew Leigh, Nick Terrell, 2020-09-29 We're all in this together. Strong social connections make communities more resilient. But today, Australians have fewer close friends and local connections than in the past, and more of us say we have no one to turn to in tough times. How can we turn this trend around? In Reconnected, Andrew Leigh and Nick Terrell look at some of the most successful community organisations and initiatives, from conversation groups to community gardens, from parkrun to Pub Choir, to discover what really works. They explore ways to encourage philanthropy and volunteering, describe how technology can be used effectively, and introduce us to remarkable and inspirational leaders. Reconnected is an essential
