Jung, Dante, and the Making of the Red Book: Of Fire and Form Tommaso Priviero, 2023-08-04 This book explores the genesis of the Red Book or Liber Novus through the lens of Jung's lifelong confrontation with Dante and in doing so provides the first ever thorough comparative analysis of the intertextual and symbolical correspondences between Liber Novus and the Commedia Starting from Jung's multifaceted fascination with Dante and his pivotal role in the former's visionary material at historical hermeneutical and psychological levels the book challengingly envisions Liber Novus as Jung's Divine Comedy This work finds a new way of approaching Jung's understanding of concepts such as visionary works and visionary mind and considers how this approach can enhance our vision of depth psychology Through various thematics such as the metanoia and the symbolism of animals as well as the transformative role of the feminine and the erotic and spiritual imagery of the soul this work revolves around the Jung Dante correlation Offering an original perspective within the field of Jungian and Dante scholarship this book will be of great interest to academics and postgraduate students studying in the areas of Jung Dante analytical psychology depth psychology hermeneutics and Western esoteric currents and practices The book will also appeal to Jungian analysts and psychoanalysts more broadly

Jung's Red Book for Our Time Murray Stein, Thomas Arzt, 2021-09-25 The spiritual malaise regnant in today's disenchanted world presents a picture of a polar night of icy darkness as Max Weber wrote already a century ago This collective dark night of the soul is driven by climate change related disasters rapid technological innovations and opaque geopolitical realignments In the wake of what policy analysts refer to as Westlessness the post modern age is characterized by incessant distractions urgent calls to responsibility and in humanly short deadlines which result in a general state of exhaustion and burnout The hovering sense of living in a time frame that is

Answer to Jung Lynn Brunet, 2018-11-08 The Red Book is C G Jung's record of a period of deep penetration into his unconscious mind in a process that he called active imagination undertaken during his mid life period Answer to Jung Making Sense of The Red Book provides a close reading of this magnificent yet perplexing text and its fascinating images and demonstrates that the fantasies in The Red Book are not entirely original but that their plots characters and symbolism are remarkably similar to some of the higher degree rituals of Continental Freemasonry It argues that the fantasies may be memories of a series of terrifying initiatory ordeals possibly undergone in childhood using altered or spurious versions of these Masonic rites It then compares these initiatory scenarios with accounts of ritual trauma that have been reported since the 1980s This is the first full length study of The Red Book to focus on the fantasies themselves and provide such an external explanation for them Sonu Shamdasani describes The Red Book as an incomplete task that Jung left to posterity as a message in a bottle that would someday come ashore Answer to Jung brings its message to shore providing a coherent but disturbing interpretation of each of the fantasies and their accompanying images Chapters Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
