Management of Construction Projects John Schaufelberger,Len Holm,2017-03-27 Unlike the majority of construction project management textbooks out there Management of Construction Projects takes a distinctive approach by setting itself in the context of a single and real world construction project throughout and also by looking at construction project management from the constructor s perspective This project based learning approach emphasizes the skills knowledge and techniques students require to become successful project managers This second edition uses a brand new larger and more challenging case study to take students through key stages of the process including contracts and subcontracting estimating scheduling and planning supply chain and materials management cost control quality and safety project leadership and ethics and claims disputes and project close outs Also new to this edition is coverage of emergent industry trends such as LEAN LEED and BIM The book contains essential features such as review questions exercises and chapter summaries while example plans schedules contracts and other documents are stored on a companion website Written in straightforward language from a constructor s perspective this textbook gives a realistic overview and review of the roles of project managers and everything they need to know in order to see a successful project through from start to finish

A Natural History of Oregon's Lake Abert in the Northwest Great Basin Landscape

Ron Larson,2023-12-12 A beautifully detailed exploration of flora and fauna Author Ron Larson offers a natural history of a Great Basin landscape that focuses on the northern region including Lake Abert and Abert Rim and the adjacent area in southcentral Oregon Although the jewel of this landscape is a lake the real story is the many plants and animals from the very primitive reddish bacteria like archaea that thrive only in its high salinity waters to the Golden Eagles and ravens that soar above the desert The untold species in and around the lake are part of an ecosystem shaped by ageless processes from massive lava flows repeated drought and blinding snowstorms It is an environment rich with biotic and physical interconnections going back millions of years The Great Basin and in particular the Lake Abert region is special and needs our attention to ensure it remains that way We must recognize the importance of water for Great Basin ecosystems and the need to manage it better and we must acknowledge how rich the Great Basin is in natural history Salt lakes wherever they occur are valuable and provide critically important habitat for migratory water birds which are unfortunately under threat from upstream water diversions and climate change Larson s book will help people understand that the Great Basin is unique and that wise stewardship is necessary to keep it unspoiled The book is an essential reference source drawing together a wide range of materials that will appeal to general readers and researchers alike

Oracle of Lost Causes Matthew C. Hulbert,2023 2024 Spur Award Finalist John Newman

Edwards was a soldier a father a husband and a noted author He was also a virulent alcoholic a duelist a culture warrior and a man perpetually at war with the modernizing world around him From the sectional crisis of his boyhood and the battlefields of the western borderlands to the final days of the Second Mexican Empire and then back to a United States profoundly changed by the Civil War Oracle of Lost Causes chronicles Edwards's lifelong quest to preserve a mythical version of the Old World replete with aristocrats knights damsels and slaves in North America This odyssey through nineteenth century American politics and culture involved the likes of guerrilla chieftains William Clarke Quantrill and Bloody Bill Anderson notorious outlaws Frank and Jesse James Confederate general Joseph Orville Shelby and even Emperor Maximilian I and Empress Charlotte of Mexico It is the story of a man who experienced Confederate defeat not once but twice and how he sought to shape and weaponize the memory of those grievous losses Historian Matthew Christopher Hulbert ultimately reveals how the Civil War determined not only the future of the vast West but also the extent to which the conflict was part of a broader international sequence of sociopolitical uprisings Constructions in Contact 2 Hans C. Boas, Steffen

Höder, 2021-06-15 The last few years have seen a steadily increasing interest in constructional approaches to language contact This volume builds on previous constructionist work in particular Diasystematic Construction Grammar DCxG and the volume Constructions in Contact 2018 and extends its methodology and insights in three major ways First it presents new constructional research on a wide range of language contact scenarios including Afrikaans American Sign Language English French Malayalam Norwegian Spanish Welsh as well as contact scenarios that involve typologically different languages Second it also addresses other types of scenarios that do not fall into the classic language contact category such as multilingual practices and language acquisition as emerging multilingualism Third it aims to integrate constructionist views on language contact and multilingualism with other approaches that focus on structural social and cognitive aspects The volume demonstrates that Construction Grammar is a framework particularly well suited for analyzing a wide variety of language contact phenomena from a usage based perspective Montana Horse Racing Brenda Wahler, 2019-09-02 For centuries on prairie grasslands dusty streets and racing ovals everyday Montanans participated in the sport of kings More than a century after horses arrived in the region Lewis and Clark's Nez Perce guides staged horse races at Traveler's Rest in 1806 In response to hazardous street races the Montana legislature granted communities authority to ban immoderate riding or driving Helena led the way to respectable racing with Madam Coady's fashion course hosting the first territorial fair in 1868 Soon leading citizens like Marcus Daly built oval tracks and glitzy grandstands By 1890 a horse named Bob Wade set a world record for a quarter mile in Butte a mark that stood until 1958 Horsewoman and historian Brenda Wahler highlights the Big Sky's patrons of the turf and courageous equine champions including Kentucky Derby winner Spokane Bridles and Biscuits Gary L. Pinkerton, Tom H. Gann, 2025-05-30 Breakfast and his horse's bridle these were what a Spanish soldier in 1790s Spanish East Texas traded for the unregulated goods found in his possession Here Gary L. Pinkerton uncovers the true nature of contraband trade and why it was so pervasive This poor soldier Pinkerton writes was willing to ride bridle less on horseback to Bxar and risk arrest so he could give his wife a gift No nation on earth could stop that kind of trade The soldier's confession further reveals that while some smugglers dealt in arms and livestock most illicit trading at the time was carried out for convenience and economic survival rather than profit

Bridles and Biscuits: Contraband Culture in Spanish East Texas explores the complex economies and shifting structures of a borderland environment In 1773 as residents of Los Adaes were abruptly forced to relocate to Bxar the Spanish retreat from the region created a greater opening for unregulated trade among French American and Italian settlers For five years before Spanish subjects resettled Nacogdoches in 1779 the people forced out of Los Adaes forged a new existence on the Trinity River in a place they called Bucareli There Antonio Gil Ibarvo solidified his role as a key figure in contraband trade Through the story of Ibarvo's rise to become the leader of Nacogdoches and his subsequent arrest and removal from that post Pinkerton demonstrates how the region that hosted the exiled Adaeseos became the entry point for those with bigger goals than trading horses and skins As Pinkerton concludes borders are porous and over time more was at stake than horse tack and breakfast Bridles and Biscuits delivers new insights into this relatively unexplored era of colonial Texas history

Modern Art for a Modern China Yiyan Wang, 2020-11-10 How did art reform fit into the many initiatives for social and cultural change that contributed to the New Cultural Movement that transformed the Chinese cultural landscape during the Republican period Modern art for a modern China was the rallying cry of Chinese intellectuals many of whom were artists critics writers poets and educators Wang describes how these groups discussed and implanted changes in China's conception and practice of art She demonstrates how art reforms fit into the many initiatives for social and cultural change that contributed to the New Cultural Movement that transformed the Chinese cultural landscape during the Republican period In doing so she analyses two key areas in the intellectual history of Republican China China's art reform in the early decades of the twentieth century and the connection and intersection between colonialism nationalism and cosmopolitanism including their direct impact on the development of art and art practice in China Modern Art for a Modern China is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of China's twentieth century intellectual history and art history

Humans, Animals, and U.S. Society in the Long Nineteenth Century: A Documentary History Dominik Ohrem, 2025-11-18 Volume III hones in on the relations between humans and domesticated animals in U S society illuminating how these relations were integral to key developments of the long nineteenth century A first section explores the role of domesticated animals in what for most of the nineteenth century remained a predominantly agrarian world albeit one undergoing significant change focussing on the labour and products that could be extracted from animal bodies the education of working animals contemporary attempts at improving animal breeds to increase agricultural productivity and market value the rise of veterinary medicine and other topics The second section demonstrates that the transportation revolution of the antebellum decades notwithstanding animals remained essential for moving around goods and people in both rural areas and the growing U S cityscapes where horses powered everything from carriages to streetcars as well as in other nineteenth century contexts that relied on equine bovine and sometimes canine traction A third and final section is centred on domesticated animals in entertainment and competitive settings ranging from the prestigious if embattled sport of Thoroughbred horse racing to pigeon fancying and the brutal spectacles of dog and cockfighting which quickly became the target of a spirited post Civil War anticruelty movement

China's Influence on Non-Trade Concerns in International Economic Law Paolo Farah, Elena Cima, 2016-10-14 This volume examines the range of Non Trade Concerns NTCs that may conflict with international economic rules and proposes ways to protect them within international law and international economic law Globalization without local concerns can endanger relevant issues such as good governance human rights right to water right to food social economic cultural and environmental rights labor rights access to knowledge public health social welfare consumer interests and animal welfare climate change energy environmental protection and sustainable development product safety food safety and security Focusing on China the book shows the current trends of Chinese law and policy towards international standards The authors argue that China can play a leading role in this context not only has China adopted several reforms and new regulations to address NTCs but it has started to play a very relevant role in international negotiations on NTCs such as climate change energy and culture among others While China is still considered a developing country in particular from the NTCs point of view it promises to be a key actor in international law in general and more specifically in international economic law in this respect This volume assesses taking into consideration its special context China's behavior internally and externally to understand its role and influence in shaping NTCs in the context of international economic law

Boom - Crisis - Heritage Lars Bluma, Michael Farrenkopf, Torsten Meyer, 2021-10-11 Boom Crisis Heritage these terms aptly outline the history of global coal mining after 1945 The essays collected in this volume explore this history with different emphases and questions The range of topics also reflects this broad approach The first section contains contributions on political social and economic history They address the European energy system in the globalised world of the 20th and 21st centuries as well as specific social policies in mining regions The second section then focuses on the medialisation of mining and its legacies also paying attention to the environmental history of mining The anthology which goes back to a conference of the same name at the Deutsches Bergbau Museum Bochum thus offers a multi faceted insight into the research field of modern mining history
