Rodgers' Poetry and Philosophy Gabriel L. Rodgers, 2019-02-05 The first poem I wrote was I Will Love You For Always The conception came about when I was thinking about a love lost or never had The primary thought was if the love was ever there to lose or did I mess it up and didn't know it As the thoughts persist I put the situations into a simile that started making a vivid comparative life story Days later and with more vivid comparative situations I decided to write the thoughts down Once all the scribbling was done I hammered out the writing The emotions of the events were artistically put into words to flirt with the readers mind to feel my desires as well as relate to one's own desires It was emotionally straining to complete the poem at that time as well as the publication of this book My heart now knows it's over and she was sent to live with foster parents before later being adopted With the real reason for her mother s death shrouded in secrecy Chanelle s teenage years were marked by an agonising quest for the truth which saw her go to extreme and devastating lengths for answers including attempted suicide Her rocky past has also been plagued by eating disorders while Chanelle s romantic history has been defined by heartache and despair And despite doting on son Blakely born to footballer Matthew Bates in 2010 her volatile relationship with the child s father played out through the courts to a miserable end At times brutally honest and astonishingly sad Chanelle s story does not make for easy reading and she is the first to admit that she is no angel But amidst all the heartbreak are humorous wry observations and moving anecdotes which would soften a heart of stone And in spite of all her troubles Chanelle has emerged a stronger happier woman who has finally tackled her demons and can now embrace a brighter future with confidence
