

- the implication is that not being able to compose the Qur'an himself, it shows that the Qur'an is from God;
- the Arabs had a strong oral tradition which allowed the Qur'an to be preserved through memory alone;
- Since he could not read or write, therefore, he needed scribes for writing down the revelation and later they became witnesses of the divinity of Quran.
- God did not want anyone else to be the Prophet's (pbuh) teacher, as that would have meant someone was superior to him in his knowledge of God. It was a miracle of God.

Preaching by the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H)

After the prophet received his first revelation in the cave of Hira, he only told his wife Khadija and her cousin Waraqa bin Nawfal, about the event. Khadija was the first to accept the message. Waraqa confirmed the prophethood, and for some days there was a break in revelation which is known as Fatrah tul wahi.

1. Secret Preaching:

The Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) passed this time in restlessness and anxiety, until one day, he saw angel Jibrael again, in the sky seated on a chair. The Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) became frightened and rushed home. He asked Khadija to cover him up. She covered him up, after which he received another revelation which said:

"O you wrapped up (in a mantle)!
Arise and deliver your warning!
And glorify your Lord . (74: 1-3)

In obedience to the command of Allah, the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) invited his friends and relatives to the religion of Islam. He preached to them the oneness of Allah and warned them of the consequences of following their evil ways. But, he did not, at this stage, make any public announcement.

- The first person to believe in him was his wife, Khadija, who accepted his message without any hesitation.
- This was followed by the acceptance of Islam by ten years old, Ali, son of Abu Talib.
- The first freed slave to accept Islam was Zaid bin Haris.
- The first Person to become a Muslim outside the Prophet's immediate family was his close friend, Hazrat Abu Bakr, who invited many people to Islam and many prominent companions Muslim through him.
- Khalid ibn Sa'id, a friend of Hazrat Abu Bakr, was guided through a dream in which he saw himself being saved from fire by the Prophet. Hazrat Abu bakr R.A interpreted Khalid's dream and he accepted Islam.

Within a period of three years, while the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) was preaching his message in secret, about forty righteous and God-fearing people accepted Islam. Among them were, Talha, Zubair, Jaffar, Usman, Abdur Rahman bin Auf, Sa'ad bin Abi Waqas and Abdullah bin Masud.

These early converts were the people who had witnessed the Prophet's (P.B.U.H) private and public life very closely and had arrived at the conclusion that such a gentle and honest person could not mislead the people. The house of Zaid bin Anqam became the first preaching centre of Islam, where the Prophet (pbuh) met these early converts and taught them the revelations he received. Muslims prayed twice in a day and would often go to the mountains outside Makkah to worship secretly.

- None of the Holy Prophet's (P.B.U.H) uncles accepted Islam. Abu Talib gave protection to the Holy Prophet . Abu Lahab believed that his nephew was self-deceived.

2. Preaching to Banu Hashim:

After the revelation of the verse, "And warn your nearest relatives." (26:214)

- the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) called Hazrat Ali and asked him to prepare a meal and assemble the Banu Hashim. Hazrat Ali R.A did what he was told and most of the clan of Hashim came to the meal, about

Notes on the Preaching Life Steve May, 2014-10-30 A collection of quotes essays and ideas about the ministry of preaching
Preaching Without Notes Prof. Joseph M. Webb, 2010-09-01 In this important book Webb makes two central claims First that effective preaching without a manuscript is not a matter of talent as much as it is a matter of preparation Preachers can learn the practices and disciplines that make it possible to deliver articulate thoughtfully crafted sermons not from a written page but as a natural spontaneous act of oral communication Throughout the book the author offers specific examples including a transcript of a sermon preached without manuscript or notes Second that the payoff of learning to preach without a manuscript is nothing less than sermons that more effectively and engagingly give witness to the good news

Explore the full series on our website at lmw.org Expository notes, with practical observations, on the New Testament William Burkitt, 1832 SCM Studyguide: Preaching Peter K. Stevenson, 2017-01-31 Peter Stevenson provides an introduction to the practice of preaching. It is designed for people from various church traditions in the early stages of ministerial formation. Preaching is a complex and challenging business requiring a demanding mixture of skills. People listening to a sermon have the right to expect that a person who stands up to preach can interpret the Bible competently, has a grasp of core Christian beliefs and believes what they preach. They also expect someone who has the necessary range of communication skills to put the message across in an accessible way. Such a range of expectations presents daunting challenges to the most experienced preacher. Including practical exercises which could be used by individuals or by groups, this book is suitable for introductory courses in preaching or for modules which consider preaching within an overall focus upon leading public worship. Expository Notes, with Practical Observations, on the New Testament ... By William Burkitt. With Plates, Including a Portrait, 1819 Ordinary Preacher, Extraordinary Gospel Chris Neufeld-Erdman, 2014-03-27 What does it mean to preach the gospel today? How do we shape vibrant congregations? How do we, preachers, not merely survive but thrive? For nearly a quarter century, Chris Neufeld-Erdman has preached the gospel, sustaining congregational life and emboldening Christian witness in the midst of this turbulence. He's also taught seminarians and mentored working pastors. His theology and practice of preaching is hammered out on the anvil of real life. It's tested. True. Useful. In this book, a veteran pastor meditates on everything from exegesis and sermon preparation to the way preachers might preach after tsunamis, hurricanes, and earthquakes. He reflects on what it means, for example, to host the text in the midst of what feels like a terminal state of war and violence, both abroad and at home, as well as the task of preaching in the midst of the massive anxiety produced by economic uncertainty and political gridlock. Here's a book that will inspire and guide you as a wise, empowered preacher, an ordinary agent of the extraordinary gospel. Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts, 1860
