Past Paper For Civic Education In Zambia:

Citizenship Education and Social Development in Zambia Ali A. Abdi, Edward Shizha, Lee Ellis, 2010-06-01 Zambia the butterfly shaped central African country has a population of about 11 million people and as other Sub Saharan African countries has been trying to democratize since the early 1990s Clearly though the promise of political reform did not fulfill the expectations of the public and with about 60 percent of the population living below the poverty line many Zambians are no longer confident that more open political systems can improve their lives But the problem may not be inherent in the political process itself and could be found more in the apparent disconnection between people's needs and the way the country's affairs are run It is with respect to these and related issues that this book emphasizes the crucial relationship between education and political participation and specifically highlights citizenship education as essential for Zambia's social development Social development which should comprise inter alia the economic political and cultural wellbeing of societies can be enhanced by citizenship education which focuses on elevating people's understanding of their rights and responsibilities vis vis government institutions structures and functions Indeed it is the centrality of the political component in people's lives especially its relationship with public policy and public programs that should underline the important role of citizenship education In describing these issues the book analyzes the role of the media women's groups and youth in enhancing the political educational and by extension the economic lives of the Zambian people The book should interest students and scholars of Zambian as well as African education politics and social development It should also be useful for policy makers institutional managers and both public and para public leaders in Zambia and elsewhere in the continent

Nasong'o, 2021-08-10 African Governance Security and Development explores the political economy of development in Africa The contributors examine the impact and implications of the democratization process in Africa with particular focus on issues of economic social and institutional development Through a variety of critical perspectives and disciplines contributors analyze topics such as the impact of democratization on governance and institutional development foreign aid and foreign direct investment terrorism in Africa identity politics and the politics of oil extraction African Governance Security and Development features the voices of scholars from institutions of higher learning in Africa and showcases case studies from the continent bringing much needed African and Africanist perspectives to current discussions about African political development and economy      Global Migration and Civic Education James A. Banks, 2023-05-08 Global migration the rise of popular nationalism and the quest by diverse racial ethnic cultural linguistic and religious groups for recognition civic equality and structural inclusion within their nation states have complicated the attainment of citizenship in countries around the world Virulent and pernicious nationalism in some nations including the United States the United Kingdom Hungary Switzerland and Italy has made it difficult for migrant refugee and other marginalized groups to attain citizenship rights and to fully participate in their nation states The enormous increase in the number of migrant and refugees in many nations has also complicated citizenship acquisition for marginalized populations In this book scholars working in civic education from selected nations share perspectives policies research and strategies for constructing and implementing civic education programmes that will help students from diverse racial ethnic cultural linguistic and religious groups attain political efficacy and become structurally integrated and fully participating citizens of their nation states This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Intercultural Education The Oxford Handbook of the Politics of Development Carol Lancaster,Nicolas Van de Walle,2018 In The Oxford Handbook of the Politics of Development two of America s leading political scientists on the issue Carol Lancaster and Nicolas van de Walle assemble an international cast of leading scholars who craft a comprehensive examination of development policy and its effects on the political and economic climates of a country African Voices ,1992 A newsletter on democracy and governance in Africa Electoral Politics in Africa since 1990 Jaimie Bleck,Nicolas van de Walle,2019 First comprehensive analysis of electoral politics in Sub Saharan Africa since the democratic transitions of the early 1990s Wringing Success from Failure in Late-Developing Countries Joseph F. Stepanek,1999-09-30 Development has alleviated poverty in many countries during the 50 years since the end of War World II yet half of mankind remains poor a fifth are very poor Poverty is not a state of nature but as Stepanek shows can be ascribed to manmade institutions that reflect self serving and self indulgent ideologies poorly tested theories and policies weak governments and poverty alleviation programs that are questionably designed and poorly administered Dr Stepanek asserts that poverty cannot be alleviated without challenging all of its root causes and he shows that well designed development strategies and foreign assistance programs can create growth and reduce poverty Western governments international banks and donor agencies must reexamine how they design and administer foreign aid if they are to be successful Stepanek explains foreign aid in general and in specific in history and theory and in its present and practical forms Sub-regional Reflection Forum ,2000 Promoting Party Politics in Emerging Democracies Peter Burnell,Andre W. M. Gerrits,2013-09-13 This book offers a critical and comparative examination of international support to political parties and party systems in emerging and prospective new democracies in several world regions It combines the insights of a strong international grouping of leading academics and pioneering doctoral studies and draws on extensive new field work inquiries The wide ranging coverage pools evidence from countries in Europe and Eurasia Africa East Asia and Central America The book shows how far international support still has to go if it is to achieve its aims of helping party politics make a constructive contribution to furthering democracy It advances our understanding both of the role the political parties are playing in the different polities and the sometimes negative impact of democracy promotion actors from outside By contributing original theoretical perspectives and empirical findings the book points the way forward to agendas for future research and new courses of action It will be of interest to academics and the policy making and practitioner communities

Zionist Israel and Apartheid South Africa

Amneh Badran, 2009-09-10 This book is a comparison of two ethnic national apartheid states South Africa and Israel which have been in conflict and how internal dissent has developed In particular it examines the evolution of effective white protest in South Africa and explores the reasons why comparably powerful movements have not emerged in Israel The book reveals patterns of behaviour shared by groups in both cases It argues that although the role played by protest groups in peace building may be limited a tipping point or magic point can become as significant as other major factors It highlights the role played by intermediate variables that affect the pathways of protest groups such as changes in the international system the visions and strategies of resistance movements and their degree of success the economic relationship between the dominant and dominated side and the legitimacy of the ideology in power apartheid or Zionism Although the politics and roles of protest groups in both cases share some similarities differences remain Whilst white protest groups moved towards an inclusive peace agenda that adopts the ANC vision of a united non racial democratic South Africa the Jewish Israeli protest groups are still by majority entrenched in their support for an exclusive Jewish state And as such they support separation between the two peoples and a limited division of mandatory Palestine Eretz Israel This timely book sheds light on a controversial and explosive political issue Israel being compared to apartheid South Africa
