Paul Galvin In My Own Words My Autobiography:

In My Own Words Paul Galvin, 2014-10-30 One of the greatest GAA footballers of the modern era Paul Galvin has enjoyed a brilliant and at times controversial career Winning four senior All Ireland medals with Kerry and eight Munster championships he was also a three time All Star and 2009 Footballer of the Year His inter county career took off in the late 1990s when he picked up a Munster minor championship medal in 1997 and another at under 21 level in 1999 But it was in the senior team throughout the 2000s that Paul came into his own In a period defined by great rivalry with Tyrone he became a key playmaker for Kerry never failing to give his all in pursuit of victory Over the course of a career marked by courage physicality and an intense passion for the Green and Gold there were many glorious days There were other days too with controversial incidents that led to a number of suspensions most notably in 2008 the year in which Paul also had the honour of being the Kerry captain 2009 brought redemption But 2010 presented new challenges In this fiercely honest autobiography Paul offers in his own words a compelling unflinching account of a career that has fascinated football fans for over a decade

The White Heat - My Autobiography Tomás Ó Sé, 2015-10-16 I went as hard as I could for as long as I could When Tom s S retired from the Kerry senior panel in 2013 he did so as one of the longest serving players in intercountry history and one of its most prolific winners Tom s epitomised everything that Kerry football is all about His commitment determination and never say die attitude were plainly visible every time he took to the pitch He was a warrior and the best wing back that I have seen play the game amonn Fitzmaurice Kerry senior team manager But his drive and determination weren t forged in a vacuum they came from growing up in a family and place where Gaelic football was all that mattered For Tom s and his brothers Marc and Darragh football always came first each of them inspired by the larger than life personality of their uncle P id the talisman of Kerry s fabled team of the early 1980s In his memoir an account of his upbringing and time in the Championship cauldron competing alongside and against the sport s modern greats Tom s writes candidly about life as a member of Ireland s greatest sporting dynasty the victories and disappointments the rivals and roguery the clashes and confrontations not to mention the tremendous responsibility that came with donning the green and gold of Kerry Moving thrilling and frequently hilarious The White Heat is an exploration of what it means to eat sleep and bleed Gaelic Games

Threads Paul Galvin, 2022-10-13 Taking the clothes they wore as a starting point Paul Galvin skilfully weaves together a collection of stories of Irishmen who defined the culture and mood of their time In Push he tells the story of the legendary Walker Brothers cyclists and soldiers who pedalled through a storm for Ireland at the 1912 Stockholm Games and subsequently served as rebel bike couriers during the 1916 Rising In Born Mad discover another side to Samuel Beckett sartor and prolific sportsman who had knockout power as a champion school s boxer In Boland we learn about Harry Boland s background as a trained tailor and in Jack we encounter Jack B Yeats at the 1924 Olympic Games in Paris These are just some of men who have inspired Paul s own fashion collections and whom he writes about here in a fascinating collection that shines a light on how history is woven into the clothes Irishmen wear Gooch - The Autobiography Colm Cooper,2017-10-05 The greatest Gaelic footballer of all time Pat Spillane When Colm Cooper retired from inter county football in 2017 he left behind a remarkable legacy The holder of five All Ireland medals and eight All Stars he was Kerry s stand out forward for fifteen years From a family steeped in Gaelic football and a core member of the Dr Crokes team Colm was still in his teens when he first played for Kerry at senior level Overcoming struggles with injury and personal tragedy Cooper became one of the GAA s most recognizable and best loved figures at a time of tumultuous change in the game But the man known nationally as Gooch is also an intensely private figure who has never courted publicity and his personal story remains largely untold Now Gooch The Autobiography unlocks a previously unopened door tracing a compelling path through the life beyond the headlines This is the story of an ordinary man who became an extraordinary footballer

Nano-bio-ethics Johann S. Ach,Ludwig Siep,2006 Nanobiotechnology is particularly concerned with nano scale properties and applications in the field of the life sciences As nanobiotechnologies bring together spheres which have hitherto been separated namely the technical and the biological spheres the public often regards this technology with a certain amount of warniness On the other hand nanotechnology promises progress in a number of fields such as health care or environmental monitoring Certainly important and desirable aims would be met if these expectations were to be realized in the future For the informed public it will therefore be of great importance to gain an unbiased overview of the chances and potential risks of nanobiotechnology This volume is mainly concerned with the possible ethical and social implications of nanobiotechnology
