Isoardi, 2023-08-07 In the early 1960s pianist Horace Tapscott gave up a successful career in Lionel Hampton's band and returned to his home in Los Angeles to found the Pan Afrikan Peoples Arkestra a community arts group that focused on providing community oriented jazz and jazz training Over the course of almost forty years the Arkestra together with the related Union of God's Musicians and Artists Ascension collective was at the forefront of the vital community based arts movement in Black Los Angeles Some three hundred artists musicians vocalists poets playwrights painters sculptors and graphic artists passed through these organizations many ultimately remaining within the community and others moving on to achieve international fame In The Dark Tree Steven L. Isoardi draws on one hundred in depth interviews with the Arkestra's participants to tell the history of the important and largely overlooked community arts movement of Black Los Angeles This revised and updated edition brings the story of the Arkestra up to date as its ethos and aesthetic remain vital forces in jazz and popular music to this day The Aesthetics of Imperfection in Music and the Arts Andy Hamilton, Lara Pearson, 2020-10-01 The aesthetics of imperfection emphasises spontaneity disruption process and energy over formal perfection and is often ignored by many commentators or seen only in improvisation This comprehensive collection is the first time imperfection has been explored across all kinds of musical performance whether improvisation or interpretation of compositions Covering music visual art dance comedy architecture and design it addresses the meaning experience and value of improvisation and spontaneous creation across different artistic media A distinctive feature of the volume is that it brings together contributions from theoreticians and practitioners presenting a wider range of perspectives on the issues involved Contributors look at performance and practice across Western and non Western musical artistic and craft forms Composers and non performing artists offer a perspective on what is imperfect or improvisatory within their work contributing further dimensions to the discourse The Aesthetics of Imperfection in Music and the Arts features 39 chapters organised into eight sections and written by a diverse group of scholars and performers They consider divergent definitions of aesthetics employing both 18th century philosophy and more recent socially and historically situated conceptions making this an essential up to date resource for anyone working on either side of the perfection imperfection debate How To
