Edinburgh Companion to the Short Story in English Paul Delaney, 2018-11-27 This collection explores the history and development of the anglophone short story since the beginning of the nineteenth century The Cambridge Companion to Popular Fiction David Glover, Scott McCracken, 2012-04-05 Popular commercial fiction emerged in the nineteenth century with serialised novels and sensational penny dreadfuls Today it remains a multi million dollar industry giving pleasure to many but it is also a field of growing interest for scholars and students of literature This Companion covers the major developments in the history of popular fiction with specially commissioned chapters on pulp fiction bestsellers and comics and graphic narratives The volume also examines the public and personal everyday contexts within which popular texts are read highlighting the ways in which such narratives have circulated across a variety of constantly changing media including theatre television cinema and new computer based digital forms Case studies from key genres crime fiction romance and Gothic horror as well as a full chronology and guide to further reading make this collection indispensable to all those interested in this complex and vibrant cultural field Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson, 2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms realist apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna Edinburgh Companion to James Kelman Scott Hames, 2010-07-05 James Kelman is one of the most important Scottish writers now living His fiction is widely acclaimed and widely caricatured His art declares war on stereotypes but is saddled with plenty of its own This book attempts to disentangle Kelman's writing from his reputation clarifying his literary influences and illuminating his political commitments It is the first book to cover the full range and depth of Kelman's work explaining his position within genres such as the short story and the polemical essay and tracing his interest in anti colonial politics and existential thought Essays by leading experts combine lucid accounts of the heated debates surrounding Kelman's writing with a sharp focus on the effects and innovations of that writing itself Kelman's own reception by reviewers and journalists is examined as a shaping factor in the development of his career Chapters situate Kelman's work in critical contexts ranging from masculinity to vernacular language cover influences from Chomsky to Kafka and pursue the implications of Kelman's rhetoric from Glasgow localism to World English Author Fictions Ingo

Berensmeyer,2023-10-04 Fictional novelists and other author characters have been a staple of novels and stories from the early nineteenth century onwards What is it that attracts authors to representing their own kind in fiction Author Fictions addresses this question from a theoretical and historical perspective Narrative representations of literary authorship not only reflect the aesthetic convictions and social conditions of their actual authors or their time they also take an active part in negotiating and shaping these conditions The book unfolds the history of such author fictions in European and North American texts since the early nineteenth century as a literary history of literary authorship ranging from the Victorian bildungsroman to contemporary autofiction It combines rhetorical and sociological approaches to answer the question how literature makes authors Identifying author fictions as narratives that address the fragile material conditions of literary creation in the actual and symbolic economies of production Ingo Berensmeyer explores how these texts elaborate and manipulate concepts and models of authorship This book will be relevant to English American and comparative literary studies and to anyone interested in the topic of literary authorship A Companion to Scottish Literature Gerard Carruthers,2023-12-08 A Companion to Scottish Literature offers fresh readings of major authors and periods of Scottish literary production from the first millennium to the present Bringing together contributions by many of the world s leading experts in the field this comprehensive resource provides the historical background of Scottish literature highlights new critical approaches and explores wider cultural and institutional contexts Dealing with texts in the languages of Scots English and Gaelic the Companion offers modern perspectives on the historical milieux thematic contexts and canonical writers of Scottish literature Original essays apply the most up to date critical and scholarly analyses to a uniquely wide range of topics such as Gaelic literature national and diasporic writing children s literature Scottish drama and theatre gender and sexuality and women s writing Critical readings examine William Dunbar Robert Burns Walter Scott Robert Louis Stevenson Muriel Spark and Carol Ann Duffy amongst others With full references and guidance for further reading as well as numerous links to online resources A Companion to Scottish Literature is essential reading for advanced students and scholars of Scottish literature as well as academic and non academic readers with an interest in the subject The Oxford Companion to Scottish History Michael Lynch,2007 Searchable online reference covers more than 20 centuries of history and interpret history broadly covering areas such as archaeology climate culture languages immigration migration and emigration Multi authored entries analyze key themes such as national identity women and society living standards and religious belief across the centuries in an authoritative yet approachable way The A Z entries are complemented by maps genealogies a glossary a chronology and an extensive guide to further reading From title screen The Facts on File Companion to the British Short Story Andrew Maunder,2007 A comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth With approximately 450 entries this A to Z guide explores the literary contributions of such writers as Joseph Conrad James Joyce D H Lawrence Rudyard Kipling Oscar Wilde Katherine Mansfield Martin Amis and others Children's

Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society Yasmine Motawy, 2025-02-25 A social and political history of two decades of Egyptian neoliberalism through children's picture books published in Egypt in the post 2000 era Children's picture books are some of the most transparently ideological materials available to parents and educators and as cultural objects they are an expression of the zeitgeist of a particular era They reveal much about the hopes values and aspirations of the society that produces them as well as that society's vision of its place in the wider world at large Children's Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society examines a new wave of Egyptian picture books that was published in the current century to see how these books responded to larger societal trends and transformations in Egypt as well as to explore the ideologies that lie behind them Yasmine Motawy argues that a host of factors including the growth of gated communities and international schooling the proliferation of lucrative literary awards returning Gulf migrants television dramas and nationwide reading advocacy initiatives helped give rise to a new kind of children's picture book in Egypt Motawy focuses on three clusters of selected picture books to investigate the extent to which these books reproduce hegemonic discourses or alternatively open up new horizons of childhood agency and societal transformation The first cluster includes books that directly socialize the child by showing them how things are done in both the domestic sphere and the increasing globalized spaces that children frequent with their families The second cluster aims at reframing cultural notions around femininity through the retelling of folk and fairy tales while the third cluster addresses children's abilities to assess the impact of their actions on their environment and invites them to examine their personal suitability to positions of power and stewardship
