Past Exam Papers For Tshwane District Grade 1:

Community Health Workers: Describing the Breadth of Interventions and Contexts Across the World Mathieu Nacher ,Nicolas Vignier,2025-05-15 Social inequalities in health remain a challenging problem throughout the world Despite a variety of specific contexts vulnerable populations often present to care later with more advanced health problems and often greater fatality rates at younger ages To remediate this health services NGOs project personnel to liaise with the communities and serve as an intermediary between health professionals and patients from vulnerable populations The denominations may vary health mediation cultural mediation community health workers Agente de Sa de and sometimes entail different functions Hard evidence on the impact of these mediators is often lacking because of the differences in contexts specific health problems considered and what mediation entails in different countries In this Research Topic we encourage submissions of articles that describe a range of experiences for different contexts where mediation health mediation cultural mediation community health workers Agente de Sa de programmes are deployed for public health issues From this variety of experiences we hope this special issue will constitute a precious repository of experiences and contexts that could be transferable and scalable interventions for others Decolonising African Higher Education Christopher B. Knaus,Takako Mino,Johannes Seroto,2022-05-26 Across the African continent college student activists have long fought to decolonise African institutions Reflecting ongoing Western colonisation however Indigenous African languages thought and structures remain excluded from African universities Such universities remain steeped in Eurocentric modes of knowing teaching researching and communicating Students are rarely afforded the opportunity to learn about the wealth of knowledge and sustainable wisdom that was and is generated by their own home communities Such localised Indigenous African perspectives are critical in a world committed to anti Black racism capitalist materialism and global destruction This book thus clarifies decolonial efforts to transform higher education from its anti Black foundation offering hope from universities across the continent Writers are university administrators and faculty who directly challenge contemporary colonial education exploring tangible ways to decolonise structures curricula pedagogy research and community relationships Ultimately this book moves beyond structural transformation to call for a global commitment to develop Indigenous African led systems of higher education that foster multilingual communities local knowledges and localised approaches to global problems In shifting from a Western centric lens to multifaceted African centism the authors reclaim decoloniality from co optation repositioning African intellectualism at the core of global higher education to sustain an Ubuntu based humanity Proceedings of the 21st International Symposium on Advancement of Construction Management and Real Estate K. ICT4D South African Journal of Science, 2008 A Nation Without Guns? Adèle Kirsten, 2008 After successfully negotiating the political transition in South Africa one of the greatest challenges that faced the new democracy was the proliferation of firearms and the high levels of violent crime associated with this Gun deaths and injuries rocketed out of control Ad le Kirsten tells the remarkable story of how Gun Free South Africa a small NGO with few resources mobilized to reduce the number of guns in circulation Through innovative campaigning and media strategies it quickly became a household name and the scourge of the pro gun lobby But the book tells more than this It highlights the value of involving ordinary people in a process that resulted not only in a new law but deeply influenced the thinking of many of those in search of genuine solutions to a post conflict society This book will appeal to concerned activists scholars and those involved in policy making and social change North West Province, 1999 International Handbook of Adolescent Pregnancy Andrew L. Cherry, Mary E. Dillon, 2014-01-13 The rates are on the decline worldwide But adolescent pregnancies still occur placing millions of girls each year at risk for medical complications and social isolation and their babies for severe health problems especially when prenatal care is inadequate or nonexistent But as the opportunity for young women and girls increases around the world adolescent pregnancy will continue to decline Featuring reports from countries across the developed and developing worlds the International Handbook of Adolescent Pregnancy analyzes the scope of the problem and the diversity of social and professional responses Its biological ecological perspective identifies factors influencing childhood pregnancy as well as outcomes challenges and needs of very young mothers as they differ across nations and regions Salient comparisons are made as cultural contexts and community support vary widely and attention is paid to issues such as child marriage LGBT concerns and the impact of religion and politics on health care particularly access to contraception abortion and other services This global coverage heightens the understanding of readers involved in care education and prevention programs and otherwise concerned with the psychosocial development reproductive health and general well being of girls Included in the Handbook Biological influences of adolescent pregnancy Adolescent maternal health and childbearing Adolescent pregnancy and mental health International perspectives on adolescent fathers Adolescent pregnancy as a feminist issue Adolescent pregnancy as a social problem Plus viewpoints from more than thirty countries As a unique source of up to date findings and clear headed analysis the International Handbook of Adolescent Pregnancy is a go to reference for practitioners and researchers in maternal and child health pediatrics adolescent medicine and global health
