What Does This Look Like in the Classroom?: Bridging the gap between research and practice Carl Hendrick, Robin Macpherson, 2017-09-26 Educators in the UK and around the world are uniting behind the need for the profession to have access to more high quality research and evidence to do their job more effectively But every year thousands of research papers are published some of which contradict each other How can busy teachers know which research is worth investing time in reading and understanding And how easily is that academic research translated into excellent practice in the classroom In this thorough enlightening and comprehensive book Carl Hendrick and Robin Macpherson ask 18 of today s leading educational thinkers to distill the most up to date research into effective classroom practice in 10 of the most important areas of teaching The result is a fascinating manual that will benefit every single teacher in every single school in all four corners of the globe

Aladinma Peter Obidike, 2020-07-23 The life of a public servant s kid in Aladinma a quiet neighborhood in Imo state s capital city of Owerri in Nigeria As expected from a religious and hardworking family the kid imbibes the family values and grows with the resilience needed to navigate the changing times from analogue to a digital age In all his learnings though nothing prepared him for the fight brewing inside a Dallas courtroom in a US federal criminal trial against a copyright thief where his character and resilience will be tested to the limit

Captivating your Class Joanne Philpott, 2009-02-02 This essential handbook offers practical approaches to teaching in an Advanced Level A Level classroom this includes AS A2 and all level 3 equivalents as well as the International Baccalaureate and other post 16 qualifications It is primarily designed to give confidence to teachers to teach in a way that encourages students to enjoy learning in lessons in a purposeful way It will build on theoretical work where appropriate to help reflection and planning by individual teachers for their specific subjects and classes The references section will guide teachers to further reading for each of the chapters if they wish to explore the theory in greater depth The key messages of the book are twofold Firstly personalised planning of lessons is essential generic lesson plans will not work at A Level and teachers will need to be aware of the personalities and individual strengths and weaknesses of the students in their class to be able to structure and develop their learning accordingly Secondly the strategies will be successful when they have been developed in relation to the subject and consolidated to secure subject knowledge and understanding To this end many suggestions are exemplified through a range of subject examples for both AS and A2 This comprehensive guide is a must for those teaching anyone post 16
