Jemibewon, 1998 The author originally trained in Law was a senior Nigerian Army Officer Amongst his many appointments he was Adjutant General to the Army and military governor of Western State and later Oyo State This is a collection of his speeches and lectures over a period of sixteen years He questions the role of the military in intervening in politics which he regards as a disturbing trend preferring a democratic political system and a military performing its legitimate and traditional role Nineteen speeches or lectures are included covering aspects of the military role human rights political leadership and legal aspects of some of these issues The African Guardian, 1990 Corruption Risks in Nigeria'S Defence and Security Establishments Jude Uddoh Ph.D., 2016-02-05 This work attempts to assess corruption risks in five key areas of Nigerias defence and security establishments namely political financial personnel operations and procurement Using a simple and straightforward question and answer format the assessment draws from interviews with key players in the industry as well as from secondary sources The scope of the work includes the last few years of President Goodluck Jonathans administration and the threshold of the administration of President Muhammadu Buharia truly epochal period in the history of Nigerias fight against corruption but also reflects policy gaps inherent in the transition in government The work contributes to an area of literature which is both scanty and characterized by much secrecy It is hoped therefore that this contribution will not only stimulate more frank and open discussion on the subject of corruption risks in Nigerias defence and security sector but would also act as both a template and benchmark on which policy makers can embark on genuine and meaningful reforms West Africa, 1989 Concord Weekly, 1985 Nigeria and Education O.
