The Never-Ending Run Lorenzo Maria dell'Uva, Massini Fulvio, 2021-09-01 Extreme race city festival global phenomenon the New York Marathon is much more than a never ending run. On top of the 50,000 plus participants who actually run the race, it's an event that involves millions of people when you include the thousands of volunteers, the hundreds of thousands of supporters lining the streets of the metropolis, the excellence, and the global TV audience watching at home. The Never Ending Run aims to give a 360° explanation and tell the story of one of the most famous marathons in the world, starting with a mile-by-mile description of the race, including first-hand experiences. On the back of the story of the race, there follows a guide to New York, specially dedicated to runners, and all their shopping and tourism needs, along with scores of interesting facts and stats. The Never Ending Run recounts the history of the New York City Marathon, provides intriguing insights, and explains how to participate and properly prepare for the race, all without overlooking essential tips and suggestions for enjoying life and your break in the Big Apple. Part one: The Race illustrates the history and route of the most famous race in the world, including race strategies by coach Fulvio Massini, as well as accounts from other famous athletes such as Peter Ciaccia, Orlando Pizzolato, Franca Fiacconi, George Hirsch, German Silva, and Alex Zanardi. Part two: New York is given over to the needs of the runner in town for the race: how to get around where to go shopping for running gear advice on what to do and not do in the days leading up to the race and the best places to watch the race for spectators Backpacker ,2008-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker's Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured

Using the Google Places API and Google Trends Data to Develop High Frequency Indicators of Economic Activity Mr. Paul A Austin,Paul Austin,Mr. Marco Marini,Alberto Sanchez,Chima Simpson-Bell,James Tebrake,2021-12-17 As the pandemic heightened policymakers demand for more frequent and timely indicators to assess economic activities traditional data collection and compilation methods to produce official indicators are falling short triggering stronger interest in real time data to provide early signals of turning points in economic activity In this paper we examine how data extracted from the Google Places API and Google Trends can be used to develop high frequency indicators aligned to the statistical concepts classifications and definitions used in producing official measures The approach is illustrated by use of Google data derived indicators that predict well the GDP trajectories of selected countries during the early stage of COVID 19 To this end we developed a methodological toolkit for national compilers interested in using Google data to enhance the timeliness and frequency of economic indicators Recent Evolutions and Perspectives in Olympic Winter Sports Performance: to
