

ESSAY

An essay is shorter than a research paper, usually 5 paragraphs.

Essays showcase a student's opinion and points of view, which can be backed up by several sources.

In-depth research is not generally required for this writing service.

Essay's main point is to prove a student's writing skills and capabilities.

Depending on the type of essay, students might need or not be familiar with the topic chosen.

Essays can expose a writer's opinion if wanted.

Students can play around with the structure and perception of the paper in some cases.

Types of essays: narrative, descriptive, comparison, academic, philosophical, argumentative, etc.

Typically essays have 5 parts: introduction, 3 body paragraphs, and a conclusion.

Essays are not tied to a specific methodology required for their writing.

VS

RESEARCH PAPER

A research paper is commonly required to reach at least 8 pages, depending on the assignment.

Research articles present other people's stand on a topic, generally a scientist's or recognized organization.

An analytical research paper requires a wide understanding and investigation of a certain topic.

Research papers focus on a deep analysis of a matter.

Students writing a research paper will always need a level of understanding of the topic and sources chosen.

Writers should abstain from personal opinions and stay in line with facts only.

There's a non-negotiable structure that must be followed and closed with a proper conclusion.

Types of research papers: cause and effect, analytical, subject-based, etc.

Have a bigger structure, including a title page, abstract, introduction, body, conclusion, acknowledgments, and references.

Research papers do require a specific methodology carried out throughout the paper.

The combined studies provide new insights into multilingual writing development by revealing the close interrelationship among these three principal aspects of writing across languages. They also demonstrate the writers' multi-directional use of dynamic transfer, reuse and reshaping for L1, L2 and L3 text construction and the use of mixed languages L1, L2 or L1, L3 translanguageing for composing processes in addition to the creative power of multilingual writers. One significant contribution of this book is to provide models of innovative ways to analyze text and new directions for writing research that go beyond complexity, accuracy and fluency. Categories and detailed examples of text features used for writer voice construction, e.g. specific characteristics of Personal, Emergent and Mature Voice, are helpful for writing teachers and for developing writers to improve ways of conveying their own intended writer identity to the reader. The studies break new ground by extending our analysis of L2 writing to the same writers' L1 and L3 writing and multiple genres.

A+ Guide to Narrative Essays Alison Plus, 2015-07-07

Just tell a story, the teacher said. It will be fun. Yet the student stares at a blank screen, uncertain what to write and it's far from a fun experience. The narrative essay, a personal form of storytelling about true experiences, requires the writer to abandon familiar tools such as topic sentences, thesis statements and supporting authority. But this doesn't mean the writer should just type words until the pages are filled. Rambling, freeform narratives are not what most writing instructors hope to see. There is a better method and it can be found in this short booklet. This booklet explains everything the writer needs to generate a successful narrative essay in step by step fashion. Starting with a story goal, proceeding through a timeline and finishing with two targeted paragraphs, this booklet will turn a blank screen into a finished paper.
