Prelude To Everest Alexander Kellas Himalayan Mountaineer:

Prelude to Everest Ian R Mitchell, George Rodway, 2014-11-26 Acclaimed hillwalking writers Ian R Mitchell and George Rodway tell the fascinating story of Aberdeen born Alexander Kellas and his contribution to mountaineering from the 20th century to the present day Now a largely neglected figure Kellas is the pioneer of high altitude physiology his climbing routes still in evidence today Follow Kellas journey which takes him from the Scottish Cairngorms to the Himalaya and discover how his struggles and explorations have impacted upon mountaineering today Headstrap Nandini Purandare, Deepa Balsavar, 2024-04-01 2024 Banff Mountain Book Competition Climbing Literature Winner 2024 Boardman Tasker Award for Mountain Literature This captivating chronicle delves into the untold story of a tribe of people who have played a significant role in mountain exploration and climbing in the Himalayas Situated in northern India Darjeeling was developed as a colonial retreat by the British in the early 1830s and soon became famous for its tea gardens attracting locals from around the region Nepal and Tibet in search of work When Darjeeling became the jumping off point for early Himalayan expeditions workers from the Sherpa and Bhutia communities soon established themselves as the preferred high altitude porters bringing fame entwined with tales of valor courage and sacrifice to the city These are some of their stories Over the course of a decade authors Nandini Purandare and Deepa Balsavar conducted a series of interviews with Sherpas from Darjeeling as well as their family members descendants friends and contemporary climbers Headstrap weaves a vivid tapestry of this particular Sherpa community giving them the recognition in mountaineering literature that they deserve Other Everests Paul Gilchrist, Peter Hansen, Jonathan Westaway, 2024-11-26 A hundred years after the tragic 1924 British Everest expedition this collection explores the wider social and cultural history of the mountain Mount Everest looms large in the popular imagination Since the deaths of mountaineers George Mallory and Andrew Irvine in 1924 histories of the mountain have overwhelmingly focused on the mythologies of western male adventure and conquest But there are many more stories waiting to be told Other Everests brings together new voices and perspectives on the historical and cultural significance of Everest in the modern world The book shines a light on the overlooked role of local people and high altitude workers while also revealing the significant contributions women have made to climbing the mountain and writing its history It explores the depiction of Everest in a range of media and investigates how the forces of nationalism and commercialism have shaped many different Everests After years of exploitation Indigenous people are now reclaiming Mount Everest in the twenty first century Other Everests re examines the past and present of the world s highest peak presenting an exciting vision of what Everest might become in the future The Hunt for Mount Everest Craig Storti, 2021-10-05 This book would be enjoyed by those seeking knowledge of Everest beyond the climbing narratives as well as those who appreciate the details of navigation and exploration Booklist The height of Mt Everest was first measured in 1850 but the closest any westerner got to Everest during the next 71 years until 1921 was 40 miles The Hunt for Mt Everest tells the story of the 71 year quest to find the world's highest mountain. It's a tale of high drama of larger than life characters: George Everest, Francis Younghusband, George Mallory, Lord Curzon, Edward Whymper and a few quiet heroes: Alexander Kellas, the 13th Dalai Lama, Charles Bell. A story that traverses the Alps, the Himalayas, Nepal and Tibet, the British Empire, especially British India and the Raj, the Anglo-Russian rivalry known as The Great Game, the disastrous First Afghan War and the phenomenal Survey of India. It is far bigger than simply the tallest mountain in the world. Encountering spies, war, political intrigues and hundreds of mules, camels, bullocks, yaks and two zebras. Craig Storti uncovers the fascinating and still largely overlooked saga of all that led up to that moment in late June of 1921 when two English climbers, George Mallory and Guy Bullock, became the first westerners and almost certainly the first human beings to set foot on Mt Everest and thereby claimed the last remaining major prize in the history of exploration. With 2021 bringing the 100th anniversary of that year, most Everest chronicles have dealt with the climbing history of the mountain with all that happened after 1921. The Hunt for Mt Everest is the seldom told story of all that happened before.

The White Ladder Daniel Light, 2024-09-05. The true story of the thrill seekers, map makers, soldiers, occultists, artists and porters who paved the way for modern mountaineering. A beautifully written and sure footed history of mountaineering before Everest, full of wonderful stories and spanning continents and centuries. A splendid debut. Sir Ranulph Fiennes, author of Shackleton. Beautiful, remote and dangerous for generations we have looked to the mountains in awe. Yet for most that is where the fascination ends. For a rare few, however, the allure of the peaks proved irresistible. There are the devout Incan priests who scaling the Andes, icy slopes to pay tribute to each mountain's Great Lord, travelled higher than any European would for centuries. The Gurkha riflemen who joined their commanders in canvassing the Karakoram, admiring the distant summits of Broad Peak and K2 with gleeful anticipation. The tweed clad mountaineers who made the first serious assaults on Everest, hauling yards upon yards of battered rope through the cold. Tracing the world altitude record from the ashy slopes of the sacred volcano Llullaillaco to the icy crags and crevasses of the Karakoram. Daniel Light takes a panoramic journey through the storied history of mountaineering before Everest. Joining a cast of colourful characters, The White Ladder offers an ode to mountains, capacity to enthrall and the fundamental human drive to climb higher and higher. Thrilling. Daniel Light delivers stories that are poetic, spiritual and astonishing in their courage and drive. Sonia Purnell, author of A Woman of No Importance. Daniel Light guides the reader through a mountain scape that stretches from the Alps to the Himalaya with the sure footing of a serious student of climbing history and the lan of a skilled storyteller. This is a book to curl up with on a cold dark night in a comfortable armchair before a bright fire. Maurice Isserman, co author of Fallen Giants. Wonderful a massive story with an enormous cast of characters, among them some of the most compelling figures of mountaineering history. Wade Davis, author of Into the Silence.

A Glasgow Mosaic Ian R Mitchell, 2013-11-30. With this book is completed a trilogy of works begun in 2005 with This City Now, Glasgow and its Working Class Past and continuing with Clydeside, Red, Orange and Green in 2009. The three books have all had similar aims in trying to raise the profile of forgotten or neglected areas and aspects of Glasgow and its history in a small way trying to boost the esteem in which such places are held by the people who live in there and by those who visit Moving away slightly from the working class focus this third instalment presents a broad view of Glasgow's industrial social and intellectual history From public art to socialist memorials and from factories to cultural hubs Ian Mitchell takes the reader on a guided tour of Glasgow outlining walking routes which encompass the city's forgotten icons

Everest & Conquest in the Himalaya Richard Sale, George Rodway, 2011-07-12 A history of those who have scaled Mount Everest and the advances in mountaineering over a century At one time the summits of the world s highest peaks Everest included were beyond reach Pioneering attempts to overcome the dangers of climbing at extremely high altitudes ended in failure sometimes with disastrous consequences Yet today high altitude ascents are frequent almost commonplace Everest can be conquered by relatively inexperienced mountaineers and their exploits barely merit media attention unless they go fatally wrong This dramatic history of Everest climbs describes in vivid detail the struggle to conquer the mountain and the advances in scientific knowledge that made the conquest possible It also offers compelling insight into the science of mountaineering as well as the physical and psychological challenges faced by individuals who choose to test themselves in some of the harshest conditions on earth

Dr Griffith Pugh's role in the first successful ascent of Everest in 1953 by Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay was absolutely pivotal yet this story has until now remained untold. As the expedition's physiological consultant, Pugh designed almost every aspect of the survival strategy for the expedition: the acclimatisation programme, the oxygen and fluid intake regime, the diet, the clothing, and the high altitude boots. A spirit of gentleman amateurism had prevailed previously, and this new scientific professionalism ensured the success of the expedition and opened the way for a stunning stream of mountaineering successes. Within five years, climbers had scaled nearly all of the world's highest peaks in relative safety. Dr Pugh became known as one of the fathers of altitude medicine, saving the lives of several members of Hillary's expedition to Mount Makalu and pioneering safety techniques for mountaineers and hill walkers. This is also the story of Griffith Pugh, the man, a troubled and eccentric person who had difficulties in sustaining personal relationships in both his personal and professional lives. His daughter and author of this biography, Harriet Tuckey, did not discover the extent of her father's role in the success of the climb until he was honored late in life at the Royal Geographical Society. His story shines a necessary and fascinating light on one of mankind's greatest achievements. Camp Six Francis Sydney Smythe, 1941
