Michelangelo Buonarroti Michaelangelo Buonarroti,2020-09-28 Michelangelo who considered himself as primarily sculptor afterwards painter disclaimed the character of poet by profession He was nevertheless prolific in verse the pieces which survive in number more than two hundred probably represent only a small part of his activity in this direction These compositions are not to be considered merely as the amusement of leisure the byplay of fancy they represent continued meditation frequent reworking careful balancing of words he worked on a sonnet or a madrigal in the same manner as on a statue conceived with ardent imagination undertaken with creative energy pursued under the pressure of a superabundance of ideas occasionally abandoned in dissatisfaction but at other times elaborated to that final excellence which exceeds as well as includes all merits of the sketch and as he himself said constitutes a rebirth of the idea into the realm of eternity In the sculptor s time the custom of literary society allowed and encouraged interchange of verses If the repute of the writer or the attraction of the rhymes commanded interest these might be copied reach an expanding circle and achieve celebrity In such manner partly through the agency of Michelangelo himself the sonnets of Vittoria Colonna came into circulation and obtained an acceptance ending in a printed edition But the artist did not thus arrange his own rhymes does not appear even to have kept copies written on stray leaves included in letters they remained as loose memoranda or were suffered altogether to disappear The fame of the author secured attention for anything to which he chose to set his hand the verses were copied and collected and even gathered into the form of books one such manuscript gleaned he revised with his own hand The sonnets became known the songs were set to music and the recognition of their merit induced a contemporary author in the seventy first year of the poet s life to deliver before the Florentine Academy a lecture on a single sonnet Diffusion through the printing press however the poems did not attain Not until sixty years after the death of their author did a grand nephew also called Michelangelo Buonarroti edit the verse of his kinsman in this task he had regard to supposed literary proprieties conventionalizing the language and sentiment of lines which seemed harsh or impolite supplying endings for incomplete compositions and in general doing his best to deprive the verse of an originality which the age was not inclined to tolerate The recast was accepted as authentic and in this mutilated form the poetry remained accessible Fortunately the originals survived partly in the handwriting of the author and in 1863 were edited by Guasti The publication added to the repute of the compositions and the sonnets especially have become endeared to many English readers Arts Yearbook ,1961 La Gioconda Amilcare Ponchielli,1884 STAY - Un amore fuori dal tempo Tamara Ireland Stone,2013-02-05 Anna e Bennett non avrebbero mai potuto incontrarsi lei vive nel 1995 a Chicago lui nel 2012 a San Francisco Ma Bennett pu viaggiare nel tempo pur con il divieto di cambiare il corso degli eventi Per cercare sua sorella che si perduta in una dimensione temporale sbagliata il ragazzo irrompe nella vita di Anna recando con s un nuovo universo denso di avventure e possibilit Ma se il
