Dear Dr Roberts

Re: Ms Anne Hall, DOB 19.9.1965

Thank you for seeing Ms Hall, a 44-year-old secondary school teacher, who is presenting with a two-week history of symptoms of dysphagia for solids, epigastric pain radiating posteriorly to T12 level, and concomitant weight loss. The symptoms follow a constant course.

Ms Hall believes the problem commenced after an upper respiratory tract infection two weeks ago for which she self-prescribed an over-the-counter Chinese herbal product with unknown ingredients. However, she has also recently increased her coffee consumption and takes aspirin 2-3 times a month. She has a history of dyspepsia (2004), and dermatitis for which she was prescribed oral and topical cortisone. There are no apparent signs of anxiety. She has not smoked for the last 15 years. She drinks socially (mainly spirits), has a family history of peptic ulcer disease and is allergic to codeine. Her BMI is currently 28.2.

My provisional diagnosis at this point is gastro-oesophageal reflux with possible stricture. I am therefore referring Ms Hall to you for further investigation.

Thank you for assessment and ongoing management of this woman. If you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Doctor

Medical English as a Lingua Franca

M. Gregory Tweedie,Robert C. Johnson,2022-02-21 In this first book length treatment of MELF the authors assert that MELF represents an important contribution to our understanding of English as a Lingua Franca ELF in that existing ELF research has been limited to relatively low stakes communicative situations such as interactions in business academia internet blogging or casual conversations Medical contexts in contrast often represent situations calling for exceptional communicative precision and urgency Providing both evidence from their own research and analysis from the limited number of existing studies the authors offer a counterpoint to the optimism regarding communicative success prevalent in ELF The book proposes a theoretical perspective on how the various features of healthcare communication serve as important variables in shaping interaction among speakers of ELF further enlarging our understanding of this emerging sub field Fairness, Justice and Language Assessment Tim McNamara,Ute Knoch,2019-02-21 This book has two goals each related to the validity of language assessment The first goal is to explore the difference between fairness and justice in language assessment The authors distinguish internal and external dimensions of the equitable and just treatment of individuals taking language tests which are used as gatekeeping devices to determine access to education and employment immigrant status citizenship and other rights The second goal is to show how the extent of test fairness can be demonstrated and improved using the tools of psychometrics in particular the models collectively known as Rasch measurement This book will have an enormous impact on the field of language assessment Using Rasch analysis models to explore and identify sources of unfairness the authors make a compelling case for fairness in the design and implementation of language assessment instruments and for justice in the interpretation and use of test results A real strength of the book is that it guides readers through analytical techniques in an accessible way Dan Douglas Professor Emeritus Applied Linguistics Program Iowa State University Introducing Course Design in English for Specific Purposes Lindy Woodrow,2017-11-06 Introducing Course Design in English for Specific Purposes is an accessible and practical introduction to the theory and practice of developing ESP courses across a range of disciplines The book covers the development of courses from needs analysis to assessment and evaluation and also comes with samples of authentic ESP courses provided by leading ESP practitioners from a range of subject and global contexts Included in this book are The basics of ESP course design The major current theoretical perspectives on ESP course design Tasks reflections and glossary to help readers consolidate their understanding Resources for practical ESP course development Examples of authentic ESP courses in areas such as business aviation and nursing Introducing Course Design in English for Specific Purposes is essential reading for pre service and in service teachers and students studying ESP and applied linguistics Occupational English Test Speaking For Nurses Virginia Allum,2014-04-17 The communication strategies used in typical role plays during the OET Speaking subtest for nurses Develop the ability to structure a dialogue with a patient or patient s relative within a healthcare scenario Several common areas of communication are covered as well as starting and ending the role play and dealing with difficult conversations Popular Mechanics ,1944-12 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it s practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle The Illustrated London News ,1855 OET Updated Prep Plus for Nurses Jayden Lachlan,2019-02-16 Detailed Guide for OET Writing Speaking and Listening
