Essays on Language, Communication and Literature in Africa Joyce T. Mathangwane, Akin Odebunmi, 2016-02-08. Essays on Language Communication and Literature in Africa explores language choice questions together with domain-driven lingua communicative and literary resources situated within the discourses of law, culture, medicine, visual art, politics, the media, music, and literature in Africa. It identifies the distinctive African paraphernalia of these discourses and foregrounds their real world and mediated cultural and societal values and highlights the Western presence through the inclusion of aspects of Shakespearean perspectives which bear universal tidings and speak to the African gender tradition. The chapters' attention to verbal and visual artistic communicative mechanisms underlines such engagements as multilingualism, policies, socio-political declension, social dynamism, and cultural interventions that characterise the African setting. These realities are discussed in impressive detail, authoritative scholastic depth, and effective stylistic tones that reflect the authors' familiarity with the facets of African societies deducible from language communication and literature. Writing Essays and Reports Stephen McLaren, 2001.
