Revelations of Divine Love Julian of Norwich,2015-05-14 All shall be well and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well Julian of Norwich is one of the most celebrated figures of the English Middle Ages She is esteemed as one of the subtlest writers and profoundest thinkers of the period for her account of the revelations that she experienced in 1373 Julian lived as an anchoress in Norwich and after recovering from a serious illness she described the visions that had come to her during her suffering She conceived of a loving and compassionate God merciful and forgiving and believed in our ability to reach self knowledge through sin She wrote of God as our mother and embraced strikingly independent theological opinions This new translation conveys the poise and serenity of Julian s prose style to the modern reader It includes both the short and long texts written twenty years apart through which Julian developed her ideas In his introduction Barry Windeatt considers Julian s astonishingly positive vision of humanity and its potential for spiritual transformation ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

Revelations of Divine Love Julian Of Norwich,2020-12-31 First published in 1395 Julian of Norwich s Revelations of Divine Love is a classic and important work of Christian mysticism and the first book in English written by a woman It is an account of her sixteen divine and mystical visions and her meditations on them which she experienced after being struck by a serious illness at age 30 in 1373 Notable also for being written in plain Middle English rather than the more common Latin for religious texts of the time Julian of Norwich puts forth her ideas for divine love and beauty Reflecting upon her illness and the visions she experienced she believes she received three gifts from God an understanding of the passion and love of Christ an understanding of the importance of her own suffering and the gift of greater piety and reverence as a result of her illness Julian of Norwich found indescribable beauty even in the smallest of objects and insisted that God loved and cared for each of His creations Written at a time of immeasurable loss and upheaval as a result of the Black Plague Revelations of Divine Love is an important and beautiful historical work of Christian theology This edition is printed on premium acid free paper

Revelations of Divine Love Julian of Julian of Norwich,2018-08-14 Julian of Norwich c 8 November 1342 c 1416 also called Juliana of Norwich was an English anchoress and an important Christian mystic and theologian Her Revelations of Divine Love written around 1395 is the first book in the English language known to have been written by a woman The Revelations of Divine Love which also bears the title A Revelation of Love in Sixteen Shewings above the first chapter is a 14th century book of Christian mystical devotions written by Julian of Norwich It includes her sixteen mystical visions and contemplations on universal love and hope in a time of plague religious schism uprisings and war Published in 1395 it is the first published book in the English language to be written by a woman During her early life the Black Death hit the city of Norwich three times It is estimated that the plague killed about a third of England's population in one single epidemic People died so quickly and in such numbers that the dead could not receive proper burial and in the worst of times lay stacked in carts like so much cordwood or in hastily dug pits on the edge of town or simply where they fell in the streets Seeing these images may have affected Julian who was just six years old when the plague first hit Norwich Although she does not speak of the plague directly her book shows a deep sensitivity to suffering and dying

Revelations of Divine Love (Royal Collector's Edition) (Case Laminate Hardcover with Jacket) Julian Of Norwich, 2024-10-22 Revelations of Divine Love by Julian of Norwich is a medieval Christian mystical text notable for being the earliest surviving book written in English by a woman It details sixteen mystical visions or shewings that Julian experienced in 1373 while on her deathbed After recovering Julian documented these visions in a short manuscript known as the Short Text Over the following decades she expanded upon her reflections producing the more extensive Long Text both of which were written in Middle English The work gained renewed interest centuries after Julian's death Her writings were preserved through various manuscripts with the Long Text first published in 1670 by Benedictine monk Serenus de Cressy The 19th century revival of her work led to multiple reprints and in 1901 Grace Warrack's translation introduced Julian's insights to a wider 20th century audience Revelations of Divine Love continues to be studied for its profound spiritual reflections and historical significance in Christian mysticism This case laminate collector's edition includes a Victorian inspired dust jacket
