

High School Graduation Speech June 6, 2008

J. André de Barros Teixeira
Chairman of the Board of Trustees
International School of Brussels

Ladies and gentlemen of the Class of 2008,

In this moment of pride for yourselves, your friends, your parents, your beloved ones, I bring to you a message of humility.

In a time of disintegration, of broken down values, of fragmented principles, I dare to call your attention to the holistic beauty of this moment.

It was only twelve years ago when you crossed the gates of this or another school, fearing the forsaken solitude of the interminable hours between that grudgingly uttered good bye and the sight of your mum or dad at the patio again at the end of the day.

It was probably just seven years ago when home work began to build up as a chore to be performed on a daily and grinding basis.

Three years have passed since you felt that the peak of achievement waited for you in the High School classrooms.

And here you are today, wondering what next.

There is pride in your eyes, there is hope in your hearts and there are plans for glory in your minds.

Pride, hope and glory are well deserved, and you must savor the moment, as the diver who jumps from the highest cliff.

However, neither pride or hope or glory is a good strategy. Being humble, focused and not seeking the credit will do a lot more to move you to the next level. The thrill of the jump and the coolness of the water are simple preludes to climbing the whole cliff back again, reaching the new peak with sweat and tears.

In a world of interminable wars, of terrorism-laden territories, of famine amidst incomparable wealth, you have been privileged to be exposed to the greatest of all diversities: That of cultures, habits, languages, attitudes and patterns of behavior. Very few schools in the world can boast the enormous diversity of nationalities to be found at ISB. Moreover, you are now a strong generation of multinational, and dare I say, transnational individuals, whose ability to cope with and celebrate diversity is second to none.

Tolerance and understanding are the most effective antidote to prejudice. Like a parachute, your mind functions better because it is open. Like an iPod, you carry in your heads a baggage of sounds and images that will shape the choices you will be making in the very near future.

However, nothing will replace your focus on your principles, your values, the ethical and moral ground where all great ideas flourish. Nothing will take away the need to look after your family, your friends, your health. Nothing will replace your need to be fair and just, understanding and courageous in the face of adversity.

Race to the Bottom LaFleur Stephens-Dougan, 2020-07-31 African American voters are a key demographic to the modern Democratic base and conventional wisdom has it that there is political cost to racialized dog whistles especially for Democratic candidates However politicians from both parties and from all racial backgrounds continually appeal to negative racial attitudes for political gain Challenging what we think we know about race and politics LaFleur Stephens-Dougan argues that candidates across the racial and political spectrum engage in racial distancing or using negative racial appeals to communicate to racially moderate and conservative whites the overwhelming majority of whites that they will not disrupt the racial status quo Race to the Bottom closely examines empirical data on racialized partisan stereotypes to show that engaging in racial distancing through political platforms that do not address the needs of nonwhite communities and charged rhetoric that targets African Americans immigrants and others can be politically advantageous Racialized communication persists as a well worn campaign strategy because it has real electoral value for both white and black politicians seeking to broaden their coalitions Stephens-Dougan reveals that claims of racial progress have been overstated as our politicians are incentivized to employ racial prejudices at the expense of the most marginalized in our society

Byrns of Tennessee Ann B. Irish,2001 Through painstaking research in archives across the nation Ann Irish has produced an illuminating portrait of one of modern Tennessee s most significant but least appreciated public figures Carroll Van West Middle Tennessee State University A thoroughly researched and gracefully written account of the man who served as Speaker of the U S House of Representatives during the critically important Second New Deal period This book will be of interest to students of Tennessee political history as well as scholars of reform in the twentieth century United States Roger Biles East Carolina University During a congressional career that lasted nearly three decades Joseph W Byrns 1869 1936 exercised significant influence in Washington He served as chairman of both the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee and the House Appropriations Committee before becoming Speaker of the House in 1935 In this first full length biography Ann B Irish explores Byrns s life and career detailing his achievements and assessing their impact After serving in the Tennessee General Assembly from 1895 to 1901 Byrns was elected to Congress in 1909 He was involved in tariff issues World War I expenditures economic development of impoverished areas and farm policy As a longtime senior Democrat on the Appropriations Committee he played a major role in creating the first budget system for the United States government Ever responsive to the needs of his constituents Byrns strove during the Depression years for two urgent but somewhat contradictory goals a balanced budget and relief for the needy In 1932 he was instrumental in defeating a proposed federal sales tax During Franklin D Roosevelt s first term Byrns was House Majority Leader for two years then Speaker As a moderate southern Democrat he privately questioned some of Roosevelt s programs but nevertheless embraced the New Deal out of party loyalty He introduced the bill creating the Civilian Conservation Corps and successfully maneuvered other major New Deal initiatives through Congress His sudden death in 1936 cut short his career at the very point when he was most influential Drawing on extensive and meticulous research Irish shows how Byrns s political skills as well his reputation for fairness and consideration helped propel him into the House leadership Her biography of this long neglected figure will prove a valuable addition to the political history of both Tennessee and the nation The Author A retired high school teacher and distant relative of Joseph Byrns Ann B Irish holds a doctorate in history from the University of Washington She lives on Vashon Island Washington

Communication in a Civil Society Shelley D. Lane,Ruth Anna Abigail,John Casey Gooch,2016-04-28 First Published in 2016 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Informa company Speak Out! Kate Shuster,John Meany,2005 Speak Out is a primer for beginning and intermediate students participating in class and contest debates It offers students clear concise information on public speaking and debating Combining the practical and theoretical the text teaches students about verbal and nonverbal communication how to research and present an argument how to answer arguments how to develop debate strategies and how to conduct a formal debate Taking Stock of Programs to Develop Socioemotional Skills Maria Laura Sánchez Puerta,Alexandria Valerio,Marcela Gutiérrez Bernal,2016-08-17 This book represents a systematic review of the documented impacts of programs aimed at fostering socio emotional skills in developed and developing countries It uses a life cycle approach to organize the findings from rigorous evaluations of more than 80 programs This includes programs for toddlers and young children before primary school programs for students enrolled in formal education and programs targeted at the out of school population The book develops a conceptual framework that helps to identify the program characteristics and participants profiles associated with a range of program outcomes These include health related behavioral academic or cognitive and economic related outcomes The review finds that few of the programs studied focus exclusively on the development of socio emotional skills In fact most efforts to develop socio emotional skills are embedded within innovative education and training curricula as well as pedagogical and classroom practices Evidence shows that programs are particularly effective when targeted to highly vulnerable populations and in particular to young children Overall findings indicate that high quality programs for young children tend to foster cognitive abilities in the short run and to impact socio emotional skills over the long run Programs for students enrolled in formal education primary and secondary levels show positive and significant impacts on the outcomes reviewed The most successful of these programs are implemented school wide and follow the SAFE approach that is they are appropriately sequenced active focused and explicit Finally the review finds that programs for out of school children and youth are usually designed as a means of achieving immediate labor market outcomes e g job placement formal employment and higher wages While some of these programs show positive and statistically significant impacts on socio emotional skills the impacts tend to be small
