

POWERFUL OPENING PRAYER FOR CHURCH SERVICE

“My King, My Lord,

I adore and glorify Your name forever! We are gathering here today for a Church service by Your will. As we prepare to start, bless come into our midst and bless us abundantly in all ways possible.

You've promised that you shall answer whenever we call unto Your name. Reveal Yourself in this congregation so everyone feels blessed before it ends.

In Jesus' name, I pray and trust.

Amen”

Tomlinson, 2009-03-10. Today most indigenous Fijians are Christians and the Methodist Church is the foundation of their social and political lives. Yet as this thought provoking study of life on rural Kadavu Island finds, Fijians also believe that their ancestors possessed an inherent strength that is lacking in the present day. Looking in particular at the interaction between the church and the traditional chiefly system, Matt Tomlinson finds that this belief about the superiority of the past provokes great anxiety and that Fijians seek ways of recovering this strength through ritual and political action. Christianity itself simultaneously generates a sense of loss and the means of recuperation. To unravel the cultural dynamics of Christianity in Fiji, Tomlinson explores how this loss is expressed through everyday language and practices.
