national concerns at the time such as the country's place in the Asia Pacific region the integrity of its borders and the relative competitiveness of its economy Applying an innovative methodology which combines the breadth of a diachronic study with the depth afforded by the close analysis of a diverse range of case studies including the protests staged by Indian international students against a spate of violent attacks which led to their labelling as soft targets in national discourses Australia's New Migrants constitutes an important contribution to our understanding of the ways in which emotions shape national collectives orientation towards others As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural studies and education with interests in migration race and emotion      International Migration Outlook 2014 OECD,2014-12-01 This publication analyses recent developments in migration movements and policies in OECD countries and selected non OECD countries It also includes two special chapters on the skills of immigrants and their use in the labour market as well as on the management of labour migration      Global Hong Kong Yuk Wah Chan,Yvette To,2025-03-04 This book examines the most recent outmigration waves from Hong Kong HK a city experiencing drastic social changes since 2019 the year when it witnessed a series of social protests Structured in three parts i e HK UK in continuum and the new HK diaspora in the UK The new HK diaspora beyond Europe and Transforming population geographies in HK the chapters in this book analyse the post 2019 migration that occurred in the midst of the city's fast changing socio political condition The contributors focus on migrants experiences of migration and settlement and their integration efforts in the destinations This book also explores the home building processes and identity changes among HK immigrants how migration policies are embedded in complex national and regional politics and how this new wave of migration has impacted HK It suggests that new HK migrant communities have resulted in the formation of distinctive HK diasporas and a Global Hong Kong It shows how migration evolves in this age of globalisation and hypermobility alongside global geopolitics and the changing social and political environment in Asia A valuable contribution to the understanding of HK migration in particular and Asian migration in general this book will be of interest to overseas Chinese studies diaspora and migration studies and Asian studies      ISSE 2009 Securing Electronic Business Processes Norbert Pohlmann,Helmut Reimer,Wolfgang Schneider,2010-07-23 This book presents the most interesting talks given at ISSE 2009 the forum for the inter disciplinary discussion of how to adequately secure electronic business processes The topics include Economics of Security and Identity Management Security Services and Large Scale Public Applications Privacy and Data Protection and Awareness Raising Standards and Technical Solutions Secure Software Trust and Assurance Adequate information security is one of the basic requirements of all electronic business processes It is crucial for effective solutions that the possibilities offered by security technology can be integrated with the commercial requirements of the applications The reader may expect state of the art best papers of the Conference ISSE 2009      Accession and Migration Yordanka Valkanova,2016-12-05 The expansion of the European Union in May 2004 through the entry of ten countries from Central and Eastern Europe has generated considerable media interest interest which was revived by further expansion in January 2007 when Bulgaria and Romania became the latest nations from the east to join. Rather than focus exclusively on changes within the EU labour market and related policy debates, this book offers a careful grounded analysis of the social and cultural processes bound up with migration flows between Britain and Bulgaria, placing these flows in the wider European perspective. As such, Accession and Migration will be of interest not only to migration scholars but also to policy makers at local, national and international levels.

Cross-Border Marriages

Apostolos Andrikopoulos, Joëlle Moret, Janine Dahinden, 2023-03-21. Marriages that involve the migration of at least one of the spouses challenge two intersecting facets of the politics of belonging: the making of the good and legitimate citizens and the acceptable family. In Europe, cross border marriages have been the target of increasing state controls, an issue of public concern and the object of scholarly research. The study of cross border marriages and the ways these marriages are framed is inevitably affected by states' concerns and priorities. There is a need for a reflexive assessment of how the categories employed by state institutions and agents have impacted the study of cross border marriages. This collection of essays analyses what is at stake in the regulation of cross border marriages and how European states use particular categories, e.g. sham, forced and mixed marriages, to differentiate between acceptable and non acceptable marriages. When researchers use these categories unreflexively, they risk reproducing nation centred epistemologies and reinforcing state informed hierarchies and forms of exclusion. The chapters in this book offer new insights into a timely topic and suggest ways to avoid these pitfalls, differentiating between categories of analysis and categories of practice, adopting methodologies that do not mirror nation states logic and engaging with general social theory outside migration studies. This book will be of interest to researchers and academics of Sociology, Politics, International Relations, Social and Cultural Anthropology, Human Geography, Social Work and Public Policy. Barring one, all the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies.
