From Ruth's Kitchen with Love Ruth Glasberg Gold, 2010-09-30 As a multi faceted author gracious hostess and cook Ruth has long been admired by her many friends who have been invited to her dinners One cannot forget her multi ethnic specialties among them Romanian eggplant salad Colombian Ajiaco potato soup Bukovinian Schmettentorte sour cream cake to name just a small sampling of her culinary repertoire French gastronome Jean Brillat Savarin once remarked that the discovery of a new dish does more for the happiness of the new race than the discovery of a star George Bernard Shaw also believed that there was no love more sincere than the love of food A sampling of the recipes from this book readily confirms both opinions Vladimir F Wertsman author of What s Cooking in Multicultural America Scarecrow Press 1996 This is an unpretentious cookbook designed for epicurean tastes It is also a tribute to the women of various ethnic backgrounds who left us the legacy of fine cuisine which I hope to pass on to future generations The majority of these recipes are from Bukovina once Northern Romania and other countries which were once part of the Austro Hungarian Empire Some of the

Bukovinian dishes are almost legendary in their nostalgia Many have never before been documented and most probably have never been featured on restaurant menus I have wandered across four continents and have experienced life under monarchies communism and fascism all of which I survived These multiple acculturations were extremely difficult but had also some positive effects one of them being the acquisition of a myriad of recipes I am pleased to share with you some of them in the hope that you will enjoy this adventure as much as I did Ruth Glasberg Gold Pesach for the Rest of Us Marge Piercy,2009-04-02 Every year poet and novelist Marge Piercy creates her own Passover seder with a group of family and friends Babies have been born and grown up friends have moved or divorced but the principals continue to gather in her rustic Cape Cod home to participate in a seder that Piercy takes joy in tweaking each spring to make it more meaningful In this journey through the ritual Piercy coaxes us toward a significant contemporary interpretation rather than an emphasis on what is strictly correct or traditional She reminisces about her grandmother who thought herself unworthy to lead a seder because of her limited Hebrew but presided morally at the table she urges adding an orange to the seder plate she even describes her heroic efforts to make her own gefilte fish an experiment not to be repeated Piercy offers her distinct slant on each element of the feast and provides dozens of her own wonderful recipes which she delivers in the same warm commanding voice as is heard in her poems and prose When I told Ira that I was going to explain how to cook matzoh brei he thought I was crazy Everybody knows how to make matzoh brei he said But I am of the opinion that there is no longer anything that everybody knows how to cook It is in that spirit no question too simple that Piercy welcomes readers to her kind of seder a homemade and personal affair the kind we all wish we could attend This charming and instructive book of Passover wisdom brimming with favorite dishes and Marge Piercy s own moving Passover poems and blessings invites us to look at an important Jewish ritual in a whole new way Enlitened Kosher Cooking Nechama Cohen,2006 Kosher Salt and Exotic Spices J.
