Discrimination and Access to Justice in Africa Wellman Kondowe,Paul Svongoro,2025-05-23 There are different forms of discrimination Among others people can be discriminated against on the basis of their ethnic grouping political affiliation race gender age and language This book focuses on linguistic discrimination in Africa acknowledging that language plays a key role in the delivery of justice and much of what transpires in justice systems deals with language use It argues that to achieve fairness the state has a responsibility to put in place accommodations aimed at reducing linguistic vulnerability The collection interrogates some of the issues that are common in Africa which is arguably one of the most linguistically diverse continents in the world bringing together a collection of case studies from Malawi South Africa Zimbabwe Tanzania Kenya and Zambia It presents practical insights from academics legal professionals and social scientists Divided into five thematic parts the first addresses communication and linguistic challenges faced by children in the legal system Theme 2 examines the position of witnesses with physical challenges The third theme focuses on language as a barrier in access to justice Theme 4 looks at the language of the court as a major barrier to the poor and the illiterate The fifth and final theme examines the position of women in sexual assault cases The collection will be of interest to academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of law and language human rights law criminology linguistics and African Studies Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1998-11-05 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Using Positive Psychology Interventions to Promote Well-Being Among Students in Higher-Education Institutions Peter J. O. Aloka,2025-07-03 This book explores positive psychology interventions strategies which are aimed at enhancing positive emotions cognitions and happiness among students in higher education institutions Students worldwide have reported increased psychosocial issues which negatively affect their overall well being and mental health The poor well being and mental health of university students has led to among other things high attrition rate suicide cases low academic performance and increased psychological and social problems among them There has been increased interest in reach on the well being and mental health of students in higher education However despite this there is still scanty research on positive psychology interventions that could be adopted to boost well being and mental health of students in higher education institutions This book significantly contributes to the body of knowledge on adoption of holistic perspectives to boost well being and mental health of students in higher education institutions PTE Revision Social Studies , Information Magazine ,2005 Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices Amzat, Ismail Hussein,2018-09-07 A successful administrator is one who applies suitable or appropriate leadership styles in various situations or contexts It is crucial to investigate how effective administrators lead their organizations in challenging and difficult times as well as promote the accomplishments of their organization Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices is an essential reference source that discusses academic administration as well as administrative effectiveness in achieving organizational goals Featuring research on topics such as teacher collaboration school crisis management and ITC integration this book is ideally designed for principals researchers academics educational policymakers and teachers seeking coverage on academic leadership and leadership models Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2000-10-18 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya
