

"Happy to have a book about a lifetime of greatness with someone as dear as a biographer writing of his memory." Antonio Cooper's memoirs look at his 40-year life story that he lived in the heart of the South. Farmer is such a great man and in this magnificent biography, and will surely be remembered for ever as one of the very best of men."

— John Mervin, Film Critic

"It was an easy writing; a biography of someone he has known so much of has come into his hands, but Aronson-Chapman has done a brilliant job. The story goes along, as Leigh Fermor's life did, with friends and lovers, books and journeys and parties, all rolling and peeling around like a mossy and pebbly thing. And in the quieter moments we are left with something far more striking: a man for whom the world was endlessly fascinating, and who, in the end, gave his life for the world, as with countless others." —Booklist (starred review)

— Journal of the American Medical Association

—Bernard Williams, Philosophy

To be fair, Patrick Leigh Fermor remained curious and open-minded to an almost innocent degree and was a conveyor of opinion and humor to his younger admirers. His ranking as the best and most honest of the best is still to be a real one."

Ricci, 2017-09-29 Travel Tourism and Identity addresses the psychological and social adjustments that occur when people make contact with others outside their social cultural or linguistic groups Whether such contact is the result of tourism seeking exile or relocating abroad the volume s contributors demonstrate how one s identity cultural assumptions and worldview can be brought into question In some cases the traveller finds that bridging the social and cultural gap between himself and the new society is fairly easy In other cases the traveller discovers that reorienting himself requires absorbing a new cultural history and traditions The contributors argue that making these adjustments will surely enhance the traveller s or tourist s experience otherwise the traveller or tourist will be at risk of becoming a marginalized figure one disconnected from the society that surrounds him This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series features a collection of essays on travel and tourism The essays cover a range of topics from historical travels to modern social identities They discuss ancient travels contemporary travels in Europe Africa and sustainable eco tourism and the politics of tourism Essays also address experiences of Grenada s Spice Island identity and the effects of globalization and migrations on personal identity

Mendel,2013-09-24 People come to us for help They come for health and strength With these simple words David Mendel begins Proper Doctoring a book about what it means and takes to be a good doctor and for that reason very much a book for patients as well as doctors which is to say a book for everyone In crisp clear prose he introduces readers to the craft of medicine and shows how to practice it Discussing matters ranging from the most basic how doctors should dress and how they should speak to patients to the taking of medical histories the etiquette of examinations and the difficulties of diagnosis Mendel moves on to consider how the doctor can best serve patients who suffer from prolonged illness or face death

Throughout he keeps in sight the fundamental moral fact that the relationship between doctor and patient is a human one before it is a professional one As he writes with characteristic concision The trained and experienced doctor puts himself or his nearest and dearest in the patient's position and asks himself what he would do if he were advising himself or his family No other advice is acceptable no other is justifiable Proper Doctoring is a book that is admirably direct as well as wise witty deeply humane and frankly indispensable Pitch Dark Renata Adler,2013-03-19 A strange thrilling novel about desperate masterpiece about a crumbling love affair in 1950s New York perfectly captures the desperate desire for love and the recognition that it is slipping away Slate One of the greatest bleakest breakup stories ever told The New York Observer New York in the 1950s A man on a barstool is telling a story about a woman he met in a bar early married and soon divorced her child farmed out to her parents good looking if a little past her prime They'd gone out they'd grown close but as far as he was concerned it didn't add up to much He was a busy man Then one day out dancing she runs into a rich awkward lovelorn businessman He'll pay for her to be his pay her a lot And now the narrator discovers that he is as much in love with her as she is with him perhaps more though it will take him a while to realize just how utterly lost he is Executed with the cool smoky brilliance of a classic Miles Davis track In Love is an unequalled exploration of the tethered and untethered heart
