Paul and Ancient Rhetoric Stanley E. Porter, Bryan R. Dyer, 2016-02-24 The Apostle Paul lived and breathed in a Hellenistic culture that placed high value on the art of rhetoric and recent advances in rhetorical criticism of the New Testament have resulted in a new emphasis on the rhetorical aspect of his letters As many scholars have pointed out however it is not clear to what extent ancient rhetoric actually influenced Paul and his writing or how important rhetoric is for interpreting the Pauline corpus This volume containing contributions from major figures in the field provides a nuanced examination of how ancient rhetoric should inform our understanding of Paul and his letters The essays discuss Paul's historical context present innovative advances in and trenchant critiques of rhetorical theory and offer fresh readings of key Pauline texts Outlining the strengths and weaknesses of a widely used approach Paul and Ancient Rhetoric will be a valuable resource for New Testament and Classics scholars

Scripture, Texts, and Tracings in 1 Corinthians Linda L. Belleville, B. J. Oropeza, 2019-07-17 This book advances the interpretation of 1 Corinthians by exploring the ways the apostle Paul quoted or echoed Jewish scriptures more indirectly in his letter Identification of allusions are brought to the fore as are questions of the texture of Paul's theology and his understanding of scripture Important topics in 1 Corinthians addressed here include Paul's use of the Law monotheism Christology wisdom and mystery language punishment of the incestuous man baptism for the dead eschatology and resurrection 1 Corinthians Mark Reasoner,2025-09-12 This commentary offers a deep dive into the first century city of Roman Corinth insight from patristic commentaries on 1 Corinthians and a focus on Paul s call for unity in the church Its thesis is that Paul counters the Corinthians prioritization of knowledge by calling them to focus on the message of the crucified and risen Christ while embodying the virtue of love to animate and unify the church From beginning to end this commentary evokes appreciation of Paul s letter of 1 Corinthians as an artifact of first century social history and prompts reflection on the letter s challenge to Christ followers for what it means to be the church Paul and the Ancient Celebrity Circuit James R. Harrison,2019-11-18 In this study James R Harrison compares the modern cult of celebrity to the quest for glory in late republican and early imperial society He shows how Paul s ethic of humility based upon the crucified Christ stands out in a world obsessed with mutual comparison boasting and self sufficiency Sacred Rhetoric David M. Barbee,Brent C. Sleasman,2024-03-06 There have always been historical and philosophical connections between the study of religion and rhetoric and yet the phrase sacred rhetoric is rarely found within scholarly conferences presentations and publications The editors of this collection intend to fill this void by presenting a collection of essays which define in the broadest terms possible sacred rhetoric as necessary discourse of on religion The contributors represent multiple perspectives and disparate academic fields such as philosophy biblical studies rhetoric and communication and each essay is united by a common concern for public discourse that examines the intersection between religion rhetoric culture and identity Collectively these essays dissect the manner in which religious actors or religious themes inform various layers of cultural discourse The goal is to foster discussion based upon a greater awareness of the issues at stake and contribute to ongoing discourse about identity and meaning The Structure of Second Corinthians Kei Hiramatsu,2023-09-07 Hiramatsu Kei examines the literary structure of 2 Corinthians and how it can illuminate understanding of this Pauline letter and its theological message He explores the theoretical foundations of Inductive Bible Study as an approach which focuses on the meaning of biblical texts in their final form by incorporating insights from multifarious methodologies Based on the final form of the letter and its compositional unity he prioritizes the literary context as consequential evidence for interpretation Hiramatsu argues that there are two major components of the literary structure the division of the letter and the identification of major structural relationships within and between the divided parts Thus he proposes that 2 Corinthians consists of seven major segments which coherently develop Paul s discourse pertaining to ministry and discusses the implications regarding his theology of theocentric ministry and that of weakness that arise from a literary investigation Hiramatsu demonstrates that an inductive and integrative approach not only presents a more suitable and helpful literary structure for 2 Corinthians but also illustrates the relevance of such study when seeking to gain understanding of the theological implications of the letter Thanking God Emphatically David C. Dickenson,2024-07-11 Is Paul being ironic when he thanks God for the Corinthians in 1 Cor 1 4 9 On one hand the apostle seems sincere as he gives thanks for God s gifting of the church On the other hand it can be hard to trust Paul's sincerity when the very things mentioned e.g. speech and knowledge will later be associated with Paul's rebuke of the church This book clarifies the apostle's intent A look at rhetorical ornamentation from Paul's world reveals that he is using one of the most popular rhetorical figures of his day called emphasis The figure allows Paul to give thanks genuinely while implicitly chiding his audience through various hints These hints prepare for every major section of the letter and the rebukes contained within them Intriguingly the only two comparable thanksgivings in the letter 1 14 16 14 18 19 also employ emphasis These passages all reveal a subtlety that is at once sincere critical and even humorous They reveal that Paul is thanking God emphatically Talking God in Society Ute E. Eisen, Heidrun Elisabeth Mader, 2021-01-18 Peter Lampe's work has covered a wide range of fields the common denominator being his interest in contextualizing belief systems Mirroring his multifaceted work the authors pursue his interest from different interdisciplinary angles addressing the interdependence between religious expressions and their situations or contexts The application of theoretical models to texts examples flanks the inspiring theoretical epistemological and methodological reflections Studies in socio economic and political history adjoin archaeological epigraphic papyrological and iconographic investigations Social psychological interpretations of texts complement rhetorical analyses The hermeneutical reception of biblical materials in for example the Koran and Christian Chinese or Orthodox contexts as well as in religious education and homiletics rounds off the volumes In Tongues of Mortals and Angels Eric D. Barreto, Jacob D. Myers, Thelathia "Nikki" Young, 2018-11-15 Through close textual engagement theological exposition ethical reflection and interdisciplinary collaboration this book presents a constructive theology of divine speech in the Acts of the Apostles and 1 Corinthians in critical conversation with contemporary issues of sociopolitical ecclesial and theological importance In particular the authors attend to pericopes in Acts and Paul that open up fresh ways of thinking about divine discourse preaching and advocacy in light of contemporary matters of theological and ethical import In addition to classical modes of textual and theological analysis the authors attend to the sociopolitical and sociolinguistic aspects of speech as they arise in these pericopes As such the authors are simultaneously deconstructing these texts through postcolonial and post structural analyses to expose these texts to an alterity at work therein an alterity that has been muted by centuries of biblical interpretation Faith and the Faithfulness of Jesus in Hebrews Matthew C. Easter, 2014-10-27 This volume explores faith in the Book of Hebrews and posits that it is manifested in four dimensions ethical eschatological Christological and ecclesiological The Role of Jewish Feasts in John's Gospel Gerry Wheaton, 2015-02-26 This study elucidates the role of the Jewish feasts of Passover Tabernacles and Dedication in John's presentation of Jesus Gerry Wheaton examines the Fourth Gospel in relation to contemporary Jewish sources and applies his findings to the larger debate surrounding the alleged anti Jewish posture of the Gospel as a whole Paul's Line of Thought in 2 Corinthians 4:16-5:10 Fredrik Lindgård, 2005 Fredrik Lindgård analyzes verses 4 16 5 10 in 2 Corinthians verses which have often been used to argue that Paul's eschatology developed over time or to ascertain whether or not Paul is an anthropological dualist Paul's concern is how the Corinthians see him His aim is to show them that he is frank and open to them and that his attitude to adversities confirms that he is a real apostle He reveals his thoughts and emotions when facing suffering The author shows that the section and its context do not support the view that Paul changed or developed his eschatology Instead the text displays the unsystematic character of Paul's eschatology Concepts which Paul normally uses separately occur side by side without elaboration Although Paul uses both dualistic and holistic language the dominating feature is dualism The analysis shows that a wide rhetorical approach can be useful when trying to understand Paul

Encountering God in Tyrannical Texts Frances Taylor Gench, 2015-05-15 The Bible includes any number of tyrannical texts that have proved to be profoundly oppressive in the lives of many people Among them are Pauline texts that have circumscribed the lives and ministries of women throughout Christian history What are people who honor Scripture to do with such texts and what does it mean to speak of biblical authority in their presence In Encountering God in Tyrannical Texts Frances Taylor Gench provides strategies for engaging such texts with integrity that is without dismissing them whitewashing them or acquiescing to them and as potential sources of edification for the church Gench also facilitates reflection on the nature and authority of Scripture Encountering God in Tyrannical Texts provides access to feminist scholarship that can inform preaching and teaching of problematic Pauline texts and encourages public engagement with them
