Supporting and Educating Young Muslim Women Amanda Keddie, 2017-05-25 This book draws on the stories of female educators and young Muslim women to explore issues of identity justice and education. Situated against a backdrop of unprecedented Islamophobia and new articulations of White lash, this book draws on case study research conducted over a ten year period and provides insight into the diverse worlds of young Muslim women from education and community contexts in Australia and England. Keddie discusses the ways in which these young women find spaces of agency and empowerment within these contexts and how their passionate and committed educators support them in this endeavour. Useful for researchers and educators who are concerned about Islamophobia and its devastating impacts on Muslim women and girls, this book positions responsibility for changing the oppressions of Islamophobia and gendered Islamophobia with all of us. Such change begins with education. The stories in this book hope to contribute to the change process. Between Duty and Design John J. Taylor, 2014 Annotation The architectural work of Joseph John Talbot Hobbs is impossible to overlook in Perth and Western Australia. It dominates public spaces as well as domestic and business streetscapes. A strong sense of duty determined that the diminutive fifty year old architect soldier J J Talbot Hobbs would in 1914 voyage to the First World War where he survived the horrors of Gallipoli and the Western Front. Hobbs' powerful organisational skills positioned him as Australia's highest ranking soldier in Europe after the Great War. Organiser of Australian war memorials in France and Belgium, his stellar designs both there and throughout Western Australia are now largely forgotten. Who was J J Talbot Hobbs that he was considered to be of such importance at the time of his death that a memorial was built in one of the most prominent places in the state's capital city of Perth? Between Duty and Design is a meticulous biography of the man soldier and architect, highlighting his place as a citizen of national importance. Living & Working in Australia Laura Veltman, 2000 Australia's immigration screening system is a demanding and complicated one. This book provides a complete practical guide to relocating Down Under, whether on a temporary or permanent basis. This revised edition includes updated immigration legislation and an emphasis on economic migrants. Educating for Diversity and Social Justice Amanda Keddie, 2012-03-12 Educating for Diversity and Social Justice foregrounds the personal stories of educators who are engaging the space of schooling as a site of possibility for realizing the goals of social justice. It is a book inspired by a vision of education as a practice of freedom where young people, especially those who are marginalized, can learn that they have a voice and the power to change their world for the better. Drawing on the work of US philosopher Nancy Fraser, the book examines issues of justice and schooling in relation to three dimensions: political, cultural and economic. While its focus is on research within three Australian case study schools, the book provides an international perspective of these dimensions of justice in western education contexts as they impact on the schooling performance of marginalized students. Towards greater equity for these students, the book presents a comprehensive scaffold for thinking about and addressing issues of schooling diversity and social justice Through practical examples from the case study research the book illustrates the complexities and possibilities associated with schools providing inclusive environments where marginalized voices are heard political justice where marginalized culture is recognized and valued cultural justice and where marginalized students are supported to achieve academically towards accessing the material benefits of society economic justice Parliamentary Debates Western Australia.
