

The Person Who Inspires Me

Do I Still Have Any Reason to Live? By: darol_maranan_07 Name? Girolene Garcia. Everyone calls me Gigi. Not only because it's my first name, but also because it's what my initials spell out. 16 years of age. I guess it will end in that number. I'm about to die anyway... I shall cut myself with this razor, or maybe yet jump from the top of this establishment! Do I still have any reason to live? Everyone sees me as a worthless woman of this world. They say I have never done anything good. Depressing, isn't it? Why should I carry this heavy burden all throughout my entire life?

Living in this world is like being subjected to eternal damnation. You want to know why it turned out like this?... By looking at your baffled expressions, I can see that you desire to know about my decision in termination this life of mine. Well, Sir and Madam... please listen carefully to the story of my life. People brand me as a juvenile delinquent. I am merely a teenager. Young in both mind and body. Vulnerable to mistakes and immaturity. In my current state, I am carefree. I swim in the pool of pleasure. I rarely go to school. You could easily spot me at the nearby street at Pauntum.

Smoking, singing in the videoke machine or just looking at the cute guys passing by. Parents? Hmmm. They exist? I don't even know that they're there. There was this time when I asked Mom about my science assignment. She answered " (God) Damn it! Can't you see I'm busy preparing for my Tong-its?" Yes, she was always busy with Mahjong, Tong-its. Those kinds of games... I asked Dad the same question. He answered "ngnrhhhh Here's a hundred bucks. Go ask your neighbor or your hot teacher ngnrrhhhh!" Father was drinking with the neighbors, as usual. I never had the best grades in school...

Still I'm in Grade 5. I never really excelled in any part. One time, I was asked by my teacher to answer a math problem. "Ms. Garcia! Answer this: 90 divided by 10?". My teacher told me. I couldn't answer. I don't know the answer. I don't know how to get the answer. Hoping for Lady Luck to save me, I guessed. "19?". Each one of my classmates laughed at my stupidity. "STUPID IDIOT! IT'S 19!". "How Dumb of you! Go home and wash your filthy clothes!". "Bettr yet... Wash your Brain. " "This is, if you have one?". Hysterical laughter filled the small room. I was humiliated, embarrassed, ashamed.

Me, the oldest person of the class, could not even answer a simple mathematical problem. My teacher yelled "You can't even divide 90 by 10! Why bother coming here when you don't even learn? Just go home worthless imbecible!". That is how my school life's like. Friends? I have none. Everyone of them loathes me. I tried approaching one. I said with a calm approach. "Hi there! Can you be my friend?". She replied "HELL NO! I'd rather be fat and ugly than being friends with a stupid girl who can't even divide 90 by 10. " I a

Combining the approach of cultural ethnography, interviews and textual analysis of selected films, this study examines the motivations, key aesthetic features and ethical tensions of presenting the self on camera as well as the socio-political, cultural and technical conditions surrounding its practice. Memories from My Aids Years Margaret Lemberg, 2019-10-08 I remember people places organizations and relationships from those years 1990-2000 when I was part of the Seattle AIDS community. I was a massage therapist I was a friend I was interested in learning about the disease and hoping to bring some comfort to people I met during those years. I was in transition in 1990 I had been working for my husband's wholesale clothing business. I wanted something different and ended up going to massage school. 1992-1992 I wanted to participate in the LGBT community AIDS seemed like an important way to do this. I eventually left my marriage and moved to my own house fall 1993. It is now 25 years since my friend John died of AIDS having never dictated or written the story of his own life. I wish he had. He often said that he planned to tell his story. All I can do now is tell part of his story from the years I knew him. When I began thinking about writing his story I also began to remember other people I began to think about all I learned from those years. And I began writing. As I wrote I remembered people living with AIDS and caregivers. I remembered theories and treatments I would like to share these memories with others provide medical care for sick people whether with AIDS or dying from other causes. I would also like to share with therapists and social workers who help with practical solutions and emotional support.

God, Tsar, and People Daniel B. Rowland,2020-11-15 God Tsar and People brings together in one volume essays written over a period of fifty years using a wide variety of evidence texts icons architecture and ritual to reveal how early modern Russians 1450 1700 imagined their rapidly changing political world This volume presents a more nuanced picture of Russian political thought during the two centuries before Peter the Great came to power than is typically available The state was expanding at a dizzying rate and atop Russia s traditional political structure sat a ruler who supposedly reflected God s will The problem facing Russians was that actual rulers seldom or never exhibited the required perfection Daniel Rowland argues that this contradictory set of ideas was far less autocratic in both theory and practice than modern stereotypes would have us believe In comparing and contrasting Russian history with that of Western European states Rowland is also questioning the notion that Russia has always been and always viewed itself as an authoritarian country God Tsar and People explores how the Russian state in this period kept its vast lands and diverse subjects united in a common view of a Christian polity defending its long frontier against powerful enemies from the East and from the West 50
