Congress Senate,1958 Hearings United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations,1960 Poems of American History Various ,2015-01-26 Example in this ebook The poetry relating to American history falls naturally into two classes that written so to speak from the inside on the spot and that written from the outside long afterwards Of the first class The Star Spangled Banner is the most famous example as well as perhaps the best Even at this distant day reading it with a knowledge of the circumstances which produced it it has a power of touching the heart and gripping the imagination which goes far toward proving the genuineness of its art Of the second class Paul Revere s Ride is probably the most widely known though Mr Longfellow s own Ballad of the French Fleet is a better poem It is evident that in compiling an anthology such as this different standards must be used in judging these two classes The first aside from any quality as poetry which it may have is of value because of its historical or political interest because it is an expression and an interpretation of the hour which gave it birth With it poetic merit is not the first consideration which is perhaps as well Yet however slight their merit as poetry may be many of the early ballads possess an admirable energy directness and aptness of phrase and there is about them a childlike simplicity impossible of reproduction in this sophisticated age as where Stephen Tilden in his epitaph on Braddock requests the great commanders who have preceded that unfortunate soldier to the grave to Edge close and give him room With the retrospective ballad on the other hand poetic merit is a sine qua non It has little value historically however accurate its facts It differs from the contemporary ballad in the same way that the New Canterbury Tales differ from Froissart or as the Idylls of the King differ from Le Morte Arthur It is less authentic less convincing less vital It may have atmosphere but there is no infallible way of telling whether the atmosphere is right Unless it is something more than than mere metrical history the modern ballad has little claim to consideration These are the two principles which the present compiler has had constantly in mind Yet the second principle has been violated more than once since in a collection such as this one must cut one s coat according to the cloth or rather one must make sure that one is decently covered though the covering may here and there be somewhat inferior in quality So it has been necessary in order to keep the thread of history unbroken to admit some strands anything but silken and if the choice has sometimes been of ills rather than of goods the compiler can only hope that he chose wisely The most difficult and trying portion of his task has been not to get his material together but to compress it into reasonable limits Especially in the colonial period was the temptation great to include more early American verse Peter Folger s A Looking Glass for the Times Benjamin Thompson s New England s Crisis Michael Wigglesworth s God s Controversy with New England the Sot Weed Factor and many others which it is recalling an old sorrow to name here were excluded only after long and bitter debate No doubt other exclusions will be noticed by nearly every reader of the volume and it may interest him to know that the material gathered together would have made four such books as this To be continue in this ebook Public Works Appropriations, 1961 United States.
