Learning to Enjoy Literature

Thomas M. McCann, John V. Knapp, 2021-07-01 Students will not become enthusiastic readers of literature from a teacher simply assigning reading tasks and assessing the completion of the tasks especially when the assessment takes the form of threatened quizzes Instead as this book shows teachers have an obligation to reveal to learners the procedures that skilled readers follow as they work with and enjoy literature and a further obligation to help learners to recognize some value in tackling complex works of literature Common Core Curriculum: English, Grades 9-12 Great Minds, 2014-04-16 Common Core's English resources empower educators to meet the expectations of the Common Core State Standards CCSS for English Language Arts ELA and build essential content knowledge for students in grades 9-12 Each grade in The Wheatley Portfolio features a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units that engage students in deep study of worthwhile texts and topics Features of this book include Six thematic units for each grade each centered on a curated collection of literary and informational texts Focus standards for each unit that complement the topic and promote student mastery of essential literacy skills Suggested texts and activities to incorporate science art and history into English instruction This revised second edition includes a sample text study that guides students through a close read of an exemplary text updated web resources and refreshed suggested works Educators who create their curriculum based on Common Core's Wheatley Portfolio guarantee that students are exposed to content rich instruction and have ample opportunity to master the reading writing speaking listening and language skills articulated in the CCSS for ELA Teaching Romeo and Juliet Delia DeCourcy, Lyn Fairchild, Robin Follet, 2007 By using the concept of differentiated instruction the authors provide a practical easy to use guide for teaching the play that addresses a wide range of student readiness levels interests and learning styles
