Development Through Bricolage Frances Cleaver, 2017-09-25 Why despite an emphasis on getting institutions right do development initiatives so infrequently deliver as planned Why do many institutions designed for natural resource management e g Water User Associations Irrigation Committees Forest Management Councils not work as planners intended This book disputes the model of development by design and argues that institutions are formed through the uneven patching together of old practices and accepted norms with new arrangements The managing of natural resources and delivery of development through such processes of bricolage is likened to institutional DIY rather than engineering or design The author explores the processes involved in institutional bricolage the constant renegotiation of norms the reinvention of tradition the importance of legitimate authority and the role of people themselves in shaping such arrangements Bricolage is seen as an inevitable but not always benign process the extent to which it reproduces social inequalities or creates space for challenging them is also considered The book draws on a number of contemporary strands of development thinking about collective action participation governance natural resource management political ecology and wellbeing It synthesises these to develop new understandings of why and how people act to manage resources and how access is secured or denied A variety of case studies ranging from the management of water Zimbabwe India Pakistan conflict and cooperation over land grazing and water Tanzania and the emergence of community management of forests Sweden Nepal illustrate the context specific and generalised nature of bricolage and the resultant challenges for development policy and practice Tanzania, 2011 The Columbia Gazetteer of the World: A to G Saul Bernard Cohen, 2008 A geographical encyclopedia of world place names contains alphabetized entries with detailed statistics on location name pronunciation topography history and economic and cultural points of interest On Sexuality and Scripture Masiwa Ragies Gunda, Jim Naughton, 2017-08 Of interest to biblical scholars students and those following the international debate on same sex issues Internationally known authors Demonstrates serious students of Scripture can find good news for LGBTQ people and churches that affirm them in the Bible and the life and teachings of Jesus The Chicago Consultation has sponsored consultations in South Africa Kenya and Ghana on Scripture and sexuality With papers Bible studies and personal essays from American African and other international scholars this book offers a new way of approaching sacred texts to discover what the Bible does and does not say about human sexuality The Chicago Consultation has developed a reputation for civil conversation among those on multiple sides of issues related to gender equality Their work in Africa builds on that reputation now reaching international biblical scholars and students Conservation and Management of Large Carnivores - Local Insights for Global Challenges Tasos Hovardas, Stephen Redpath, José Vicente López-Bao, Vincenzo Penteriani, Arie Trouwborst, 2021-06-29 Handbook of Research on Nurturing Industrial Economy for Africa's Development Nafukho, Frederick Muyia, Boniface Makulilo, Alexander, 2021-03-19 A robust manufacturing sector is a necessity and a sufficient condition for any country's human and economic development as it creates employment and alleviates poverty During this Fourth Industrial Revolution era there is an urgent need in Africa to optimally utilize the existing resources to support manufacturing or else risk allowing the continent to fall behind in the industrial economy Innovative strategies are needed that can unlock Africa's manufacturing potential by exploring key areas that may help Africa mature and launch modernized economies that will benefit the developed world's industrial economy The Handbook of Research on Nurturing Industrial Economy for Africa's Development examines various innovations necessary for Africa's economic development including drivers of the manufacturing economy such as education agriculture human capital science and technological innovations language politics and business environments The book explores strategies to increase Africa's economic diversity complexity productivity and ultimately competitiveness and for the continent to realize its manufacturing industrial potential Further chapters focus on African countries industrial economies in the African context and facilitating the fulfillment of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and the African Union's Agenda 2063 This book is a valuable reference tool for government officials economists industrialists practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in the industrial economic development of Africa Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society and monthly record of geography ,1879
